REVERSAL CHART PATTERN

Double Top 	Head and Shoulders 	Rising Wedge
Double Bottom 	Inverse Head and Shoulders 	Falling Wedge

Reversal patterns are those chart formations that signal that the ongoing trend is about to change course.

If a reversal chart pattern forms during an uptrend, it hints that the trend will reverse and that the price will head down soon.

Conversely, if a reversal chart pattern is seen during a downtrend, it suggests that the price will move up later on.
