MEMORY JOURNAL

JAMES 1:4

Wisdom

James 1:5

"If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to you".

A Scripture Memory Journal is a way to not only learn Scripture by memory, but also to learn what God may have for us through a particular passage.

You will find yourself journalling about things like:

How am I challenged by this passage?

Does it show any sin in me?

Does it teach me how to treat others in a more Christlike way?

Does it show more about who God is?

Does it teach me to glorify God more?

There is also something powerful that happens in the brain when we write out things using pen/pencil and paper, rather than typing or dictating onto a device. So don't skip the first part of each day!

Allocate yourself a set time and place where you know you are not going to be rushing off to somewhere else, and sit with the question for a few minutes.

MEMORY WORK & JOURNALING

Write Out & Say James 1:5

"If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to you".

1 – When you hear the word "wisdom," who's the first person that comes to your mind? What makes you think they're wise? How do they remind you of what the Bible says about wisdom?

"If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to you".

2 – What's the difference between being smart and being wise? Write about how Godly wisdom might look different from what the world calls wisdom.

3 – When was the last time you asked God for wisdom? What happened? How did it feel to depend on God instead of just yourself?

A scenic view of a calm lake reflecting the surrounding mountains and sky, with a rocky shoreline in the foreground. The water is still, creating a perfect mirror image of the landscape above. The mountains are rugged and covered in green vegetation, with some peaks appearing misty. The sky is a pale, hazy blue. In the foreground, several large, smooth, grey rocks are scattered along the shore, partially submerged in the water. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and serene.

4 – What's one piece of wise advice you've gotten that really stuck with you? How does it match up with what the Bible says about wisdom?

5 – Write about something you're worried about right now. How might looking at it through God's wisdom change how you see the situation?

6 – What habits in your life help you grow wiser? What habits might be getting in the way of growing in wisdom? Talk to God about both.

7 – Think about someone younger than you who might need wisdom. What godly advice would you share with them? What Bible verses would help them?
