Moms With Money Community Rules - PLEASE READ

Moms With Money (MWM) is a special, safe, nurturing, supportive group setting of like-minded, soulful, compassionate women and mamas just like you. This is a caring, open-hearted space for connection and support to assist you in transforming your life, walking shoulder to shoulder with you as you grow and learn, celebrating your wins together, and encouraging you through the bumps and challenges. As such, hearts and souls are often bared, deep secrets, and very personal things are shared.

In order to ensure that ALL Mamas in MWM have access to the coaching they need, feel as safe, "at home" as possible to ask for help, and are supported at all times with pure love, please carefully read and abide by the following TSC, MWM Program, and Community Rules.

- Keep It Confidential: Honor the journey and privacy of your fellow students by never sharing their personal stories or details outside of this program without their consent. Very personal topics come up during coaching, and I encourage this in order to help you truly grow and receive help. But this is only possible if this is a safe, loving, supportive, confidential learning and growing environment for all.

- Serve Don't Sell: Out of respect for the group learning environment, please refrain from sharing ANY services. No direct or indirect self-promotion of your programs, groups or services, including no links to your site(s) or social media profiles and private messages.

- NO External Links: Please do not post links. You may share a tool, program or service that you love and use from inside the program, but please keep this space free of external links.

- Stay On Topic: Share anything you like around your personal journey within Moms With Money and what you have experienced within this program specifically. Keep the conversation focused around what we are creating here together.

- Politics-Free Zone: For respect of all beliefs and cultures, posts and comments that suggest political views are not allowed.

- Be Kind and Supportive: Make sure everyone feels safe at all times in all ways. If you choose to comment on another post, do so in an uplifting way.

- NO Coaching: Please do not coach or advise fellow students. All coaching is only done by the Teal Shoop Coaching Team.

- One Strike You're Out: This is a learning space, safe and kind for all. As a result, there is zero tolerance for any violation of the rules laid out here. Violate the rules even once and Teal Shoop Coaching, LLC reserves the right to immediately remove you from the program.

- Let Us Help You: Feel free to reach out to customer support email at teal@tealshoopcoaching.com for your technical and non-content related questions. For all content/concepts/materials questions, post in this MWM Community.
