“And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh.” Luke 21:28

“Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need to have anything written to you. For you yourselves are fully aware that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. While people are saying, ‘There is peace and security,’ then sudden destruction will come upon them as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. But you are not in darkness, brothers, for that day to surprise you like a thief.” 1 Thessalonians 5:1-4

“...people will be lovers of self, lovers of money, proud, arrogant, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, heartless, unappeasable, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not loving good, treacherous, reckless, swollen with conceit, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, having the appearance of godliness, but denying its power. Avoid such people. For among them are those who creep into households and capture weak women, burdened with sins and led astray by various passions, always learning and never able to arrive at a knowledge of the truth.” 2 Timothy 3:1-7

Famines, wars, pestilences, and earthquakes happening simultaneously across the earth (Matt. 24:4-8, Mark 13:5-8, Luke 21:8-11). Apostasy (falling away) within the church with many false teachings (2 Thess. 2:3, 1 Tim. 4:1). Restrictions on marriage and meat consumption (1 Tim. 4:2-3). People scoffing at the return of Jesus (2 Pet. 3:3-4). People deliberately overlooking the fact that the earth was formed out of water and through water by the word of God (2 Pet. 3:5). People traveling all over the earth and knowledge rapidly and exponentially increasing (Daniel 12:4). Earthwide divided kingdom that is partly strong and partly brittle (Daniel 2:42). Israel suddenly becoming a prosperous nation once more, with a rapidly growing population, thriving agriculture, riches, and even reviving the dead language of Hebrew (Ezekiel 36, Isaiah 66:8, Jeremiah 33, Zephaniah 3:9). The nations of the world turning against Israel and stumbling as if drunk over Jerusalem (Zechariah 12:1-3, Revelation 12:13-17, Romans 11). A one-world government with one religion (Revelation 13:1-15). A government where one ruler known as Antichrist will rise up and require everyone, both small and great, to worship his image and to receive a mark in their hand or in their forehead in order to buy or sell (Revelation 13:16-18). The spirit of Antichrist at work with all power and signs and lying wonders of Satan (2 Thessalonians 2:7-10).
