the two regatherings of Israel

Jeremiah 30
Jeremiah 3 & 31

WHO: The scattered people of Israel
WHAT: Shall be saved by God out of "the time of Jacob's trouble"
WHERE: In the land of Israel given to their fathers, in the city that is rebuilt for the people to dwell
WHEN: In the latter days leading up to God's wrath
WHY: To set them free from the other nations. To restore health to them and to heal their wounds. To have compassion on them.
HOW: By the Lord's work, the scattered people shall take possession of the land God gave them. The Lord will multiply and bless both the people and the land of Israel. The Lord will punish the nations who oppress Israel and make a full end of the nations who scattered them because those nations called Israel an outcast and said, "It is Zion for whom no one cares!" The Lord will pour out His fierce anger and wrath on the wicked.

Jeremiah 30

the first regathering of Israel

WHAT: Shall come to faith as He gathers them to Zion to be with Him in Jerusalem

WHEN: After God's wrath has been fully executed
WHY: To heal Israel's faithlessness, to restore them to God in the new covenant, to place good shepherds over them, and for them to dwell with the Lord in Jerusalem.
HOW: The Lord will bring them to Zion. With mercy He will lead them and they will find grace. The Lord will again rebuild the cities and restore the land of Israel and multiply the people. The Lord will Himself rule from His throne in Jerusalem. The nations of the world will gather to the Lord in Jerusalem.
