

7-DAY CLOSET REMIX CHALLENGE

This challenge is tailor-made for those who want to take on a fresh perspective with what's already hanging in their closet.

Welcome to the 7-Day Closet Remix Challenge – your ticket to a week of fashion fun without breaking the bank! No new purchases, no online carts, just you and your fabulous closet. Come out with a transformed outlook on your current wardrobe and a newfound confidence in your personal style. Get ready to explore, experiment, and embrace the art of remixing with what you already own.

For bonus points, I encourage you to post your outfit of the day, daily throughout this challenge! Be sure to tag me (@_cupofjojo) so I can reshare all your fun outfits!

Day 1: Monochrome Magic

Go all out with one color, mixing shades and textures. Feel free to experiment with light and dark tones, and play with textures of different fabrics as well!

Day 2: Print Mix Mania

Combine different prints for a bold, stylish look. Feeling stuck? Start with a neutral base if you're new to print mixing; it provides a solid foundation for experimenting with various prints.

Day 3: Reverse Layering

Something that is always fun is turning skirts into dresses and dresses into skirts! In addition to this, try wearing tops over dresses or jumpsuits. Play with lengths to create a visually striking outfit, mixing shorter tops with longer dresses or jumpsuits.

Day 4: Shoe Remix Spectacle

Style one outfit with at least three pairs of shoes. Experiment with various styles – heels, sneakers, boots, flats. You never know what can inspire you.

Day 5: Event Remix Extravaganza

Versatility alert! Remix an outfit you wore for an event for a completely different occasion. Mix and match elements, experimenting with accessories to shift the overall vibe

Day 6: Fashion Hack Frenzy

We've got hacks for days! Crop a sweater by tucking it into your bralette, cuff your jeans, use a belt as a necklace or bracelet. For more fashion hacks, check out Pinterest and search “fashion hacks” for more inspo.

Day 7: Recreate the Look

Start by pinpointing a specific outfit that caught your eye on Pinterest or elsewhere. Break down its key elements – the clothing pieces, accessories, colors, and overall style, then find pieces that mirror the inspiration outfit.

Now, take a moment to reflect on your journey with this journal prompt:

Consider one outfit or styling choice that stood out to you during the challenge. What elements made it unique, and how did it make you feel? Did you discover a newfound appreciation for a piece in your closet, or did you experiment with a style you hadn't considered before? Dive into the emotions and insights that surfaced during this process.

A large rectangular area designed for journaling. It is enclosed by a solid yellow border. Inside this, there is a dotted blue line forming a slightly smaller rectangle, creating a space for handwritten text.

Congratulations on successfully completing the 7-Day Closet Remix Challenge! Keep celebrating your unique style journey, and may your closet continue to be a space for authentic self-expression.
