Introduction

Hi, I'm Shannon Sheridan, and I'm thrilled to guide you through the exciting world of digital product creation!

A few years ago, I was exactly where you are now - dreaming of creating a flexible, profitable online business but unsure where to start. Through trial, error, and success, I discovered a proven process to build and launch digital products that actually sell.

This guide will break down the 5 key steps I used to build my digital product business, so you can skip the guesswork and get straight to your first £1,000 online.

Let's dive in!

Step 1: Find Your Profitable Idea

Every successful digital product starts with a profitable idea. But how do you know if your idea will sell?

- Identify Your Strengths: What skills, knowledge, or expertise do you have?
- Spot a Problem: What problems do people frequently ask you for help with?
- Research Demand: Use tools like Google Trends, Amazon Bestsellers, or Reddit forums to see what people are searching for.

Examples of profitable ideas:

- eBook: 'Healthy Meal Prep for Busy Professionals'
- Course: 'Mastering Instagram Marketing for Small Businesses'
- Templates: 'Budget Planning Spreadsheet'

Tip: Don't overthink it - start with something you know and love!

Step 2: Create Your Digital Product

Now that you've chosen your idea, it's time to create your product!

Common Digital Product Types:

- eBooks (PDF guides, downloadable books)
- Online Courses (Video-based training programs)
- Templates (Workbooks, planners, design templates)

Tools to help you create:

- eBooks: Canva, Microsoft Word
- Online Courses: Teachable, Kajabi
- Templates: Notion, Google Sheets

Tip: Keep it simple for your first product. Focus on solving one problem really well!

Step 3: Build Your Online Platform

Step 4: Market Your Product

A great product needs great marketing to reach your audience.

Free Marketing Strategies:

- Social Media: Share valuable tips and teasers
- Email Marketing: Build a list and nurture your audience
- Content Marketing: Blog posts, YouTube videos
