

About Us

Our Commitment to Security Awareness

At the heart of our organization is a deep-seated passion for providing security awareness information to employees of companies who do not feel safe at their work. With a background as a retired military police officer who has served for 31 years in the Canadian Armed Forces, our founder brings unparalleled expertise and dedication to the field. The distinguished career involved counter-intelligence operations, major case management, and surveillance operations, ensuring the security and safety of our nation both domestically and overseas.

After transitioning from the military, our founder assumed the role of corporate security advisor for a provincial government, where responsibilities included safeguarding staff and judicial personnel. This role further honed expertise in physical security assessments, risk assessments, and residential assessments, contributing to the establishment of secure environments for all individuals.

Our vision is centered on a community-focused approach to building a safe and secure environment. We believe in empowering individuals through security education to foster awareness and resilience. Our mission is to create empowerment through security education to build a sense of awareness and resilience. We adhere to the ethos of truth, duty, honesty, and valuing family above all else.

We offer a range of online courses designed to address various aspects of security:

- Human-Induced Threat Reduction Course: Techniques and methodologies to mitigate threats posed by individuals.
