Chapter 1:

How it all began...

This was sometime in 2011...

I'd just been introduced to pornography by my then-close friend who'd just bought a brand new Sony Ericcson Xperia X10.

I can remember clearly, that was the exact color and model...

This phone almost ended me!

Back then, during the break which was always by noon, I made sure I wasted at least 10 minutes of my life watching porn before even finding something to eat.

I hadn't explored masturbation at that time.

The reason behind that (I guess) was because I never had a phone and the only time I had access to porn was when I was with my close friend.

I didn't even know what masturbation was or what it looked or felt like.

Not until... I finished Junior High School and had to take a compulsorily long break from School before I resumed Senior High School.

This was where my real problem began!

Back in 2009-2014, VCD and DVD players were a thing any family had in their homes, the only way I could access porn was to buy compact disks stuffed with different porn videos.

Did I do it?

Of course, I did!

Even worse, all the money spent buying several pornographic CDs' was gotten from my mother's purse (may God bless her soul as she continues to rest in the bosom of the LORD).

I watched, watched, and watched till I got tired of the plastic experience.

I WANTED MORE!

So, gently... I started rubbing the tip of my d*ck as I watched even more pornographic videos.

But there was a particular video that got me glued... A black lady with "double-J-sized" breasts. I had never seen that size of breasts naked before in my life.

While the owner of this pair of mighty breasts was busy pouncing on her energetic partner as they had sex, the way her breasts were dangling all over the place I just couldn't handle the sight.

The pleasure was too much for my heart to bear.

I went from gently rubbing the tip of my d*ck to aggressively scratching it like there was a kind of itch that just wouldn't go.

The itch got sweeter as I gave it more attention.

For a moment, I quit the aggressive scratch. Slowly...very slowly I kicked off with a soft d*ck massage and it all looked like it was the best decision of my life.

A few minutes into it, my d*ck was vibrating furiously like it was about to explode. What's happening? Am I going to die?

For a split second, the unexpected happened.

I saw my SPERM!!! (I was just 11).

That, my friend, was how my 12 years of masturbation struggle started.

Can you remember how yours started?

Yes?

Good.

At least, you don't have to share it with me.

I shared mine with you (in deep, nasty details) as proof that...

Nothing is wrong with you

The cage of lust and uncontrollable sexual urges respects no man.

But there's a WAY OUT!

A way you have never seen before.

It's so simple, anybody can do it.

This is beyond mere quoting religious scriptures.

I'm showing you a dark psychological way to win the war against masturbation without any form of pressure tactics whatsoever.

Do you say we dive in?

Let's gooooooooooooooooooooo!

Chapter 2

When Self-Decision Is Not Enough...

Listen up...

Deciding you want to stop pornography and masturbation is great but is that enough?

You could quote all the biblical scriptures you may know...

Pray like a wounded lion...

Sleep with the crowd to avoid being alone...

But when the urge hits, it can come in ANY form.

You can't just tell what next might trigger it.

It could be your friend coincidentally uttering a word said in some porn content you watched many months ago (sexual words stick to the brain faster than anything else).

Even if you use porn blockers for all your browsers, remember...always remember...Instagram, Twitter (now X),

Facebook, WhatsApp, and many other social apps are very much in business and are used by over 8 billion people worldwide.

Anybody. I mean it. ANYONE can ruin your day by posting your triggers.

Now, you have no control over it. The fact that you're fighting HARD to get yourself out of the cage of lust doesn't mean others are trying to too.

But does it mean you have to throw your mobile devices away?

You can though. I heard some people still communicate with FAX machines today.

Here's a better way instead...

You've Been Fighting Masturbation With A Blunt Sword

What exactly is this blunt sword?

Your Willpower!

Haven't you noticed?

Anytime you try hard to beat masturbation, you end up becoming even more addicted to it.

Now, the religious ones amongst us may say it's an evil spirit living inside you and you have to battle it in the spirit.

Well... unless you know exactly how to enter the spirit realm, I suggest you take the next few lines very seriously...

Bitter Truth: While you use willpower, prayers, and biblical scriptures to forcefully stop masturbation, Masturbation uses ONE thing and wins 100% of the time.

What's that ONE thing?

Your Imagination.

I'd give you time to read that again.

Done?

Ummmmm...

Give me some time to catch my breath a little. I've been typing for an hour now.

Hold on a little.

A little more.

Ok. Let's go!

The Two-Step Way To Ending Masturbation For Good!

Step 1: Full Acceptance

The chancellor of the university I graduated from is one of the most decorated Pentecostal Pastors in Nigeria (I withdraw from calling names).

One of the few times he came to preach to us, he blatantly condemned indecent sexual life, which was good.

But how he did it? Very laughable.

No wonder the church seems to have so many pretenders than actual saints (excuse my French).

Here are the exact words he said as I can remember:

"How can a full-grown man be attracted to a part of the body that produces shit?"

There's no better way to explain his facial expression as he said those words than this...

Imagine a gorilla licking lime for the first time. Yeah! That was how his facial expression looked.

Now, let me ask you a simple question...

Is the ass of a lady not attractive?

This is the simple truth we fail to tell ourselves.

If they weren't attractive, pastors wouldn't be caught pants down with another man's wife.

Downplaying the power of sexual desires it's the same as saying: The Devil is a complete fool.

He's not.

The first step is accepting wholeheartedly that sexual desires are strong and it can sway not only you but any living man on the planet.

Now the final step!

This is by far the longest step.

Step 2: Sexual Transmutation

Sex is a powerful force and it's made so by our creator.

We can't stop its power.

We can't downplay it.

But we can channel it.

Look, everybody has been hit by sexual urges. You know how it feels. You know how strong it hits.

But what if?

What if the strong sexual force you feel can be channeled elsewhere, not instantly but gradually?

Here's how I did mine...

The Long Ride

Two years ago, I was a clueless dummy. I didn't know how to articulate my thoughts well to convince the next person.

I just lived my life doing menial jobs to survive despite graduating with first class and even completing the most prestigious professional examination in the insurance industry at the age of 20- Chartered Insurance Institute of Nigeria.

Not only did I qualify as a chartered insurer, but I also finished the 2020 Examination Diet as the Nationwide Best in Marine and Aviation Insurance.

Did I get job offers?

Yes. Three of them.

But, I remember declining all for some excuses created in my head.

God!

My father hated me. My siblings despise me too, and they don't hesitate to mock me for taking what seems to be a cursed direction in life.

Well, since I'm the youngest I can take any bullshit. After all, the African culture views it as an insult if the younger person says his opinion about his own life is being disrespected.

That's why you see elders forcefully tell the younger ones to cut their hair like it was contaminating the air they breathe.

My family weren't seeing what I was seeing or better put, they just wanted a regular version of me they were comfortable with.

Well, what I saw was...

99% of the people I see with my qualifications end up in a rented two-three bedroom flat. Get married. Give birth. Bills. Even more heavy bills. Then, by luck, struggle to buy a house or two.

Live happily ever after.

That's not me!

I want to live in a mansion where my friend and his family can come and spend Christmas with me and my family. Comfortably.

I can't afford to see relocation as an elephant project. Traveling around the world shouldn't be a luxury or should it?

But...

That kind of lifestyle cannot be achieved by getting stuck in a corner office where they pay you 6-7 figures, a car loan offer and then life happens so fast...wife...kids...big and even bigger responsibilities.

Your moves have to be different if you want to live a different life.

Judging from my life, all odds were already stacked against me.

I couldn't dare ask my siblings for any support even if I desperately needed it to avoid further mockery. There were days when I felt lost and in deep pain after working so long and hard on a project and realized halfway that I was building rubbish.

This made me rethink my choices.

It's either I wallow in self-pity and masturbate my life to death...
Or I work so hard to prove to the world that I'm GREAT.

Of course, I chose to prove to the world.

So, without any support or advice, I picked a rewarding skill to learn. A hard one. The one many fail multiple times at and give up...

Persuasive Writing.

You can call me cocky, I don't care but not many people can make you read a message to this point without breaking a line.

I was not born a writer. I didn't even know I was going to write to you someday. I just did one simple thing...

I decided to become one of the best writers of my century.

Because of this single decision, I've read over 60+ books on marketing and psychology. I've bought courses (both bad and wonderful). I've studied day and night. Tested my knowledge with my hard-earned money...

Please note, in all these periods I was still masturbating every week.

Outworking myself didn't work. That's willpower, a blunt sword.

Beat Masturbation at its Game!

Fortunately for me, I joined a closed group of six members who were struggling to stop masturbation.

In that group, a particular member raised an idea.

An idea that led to our mysterious solution. Also, the idea that made it possible to sit with you as we talk today.

The good news is...

The member who raised the idea is here with us today.

His name is Favour (my partner in this selfless mission).

I'll stop here. Let me allow Favour to explain how he came up with this mysterious idea.

Favour...over to you...

Favour:

Hi...

I wouldn't want to waste any time with a bullshit introduction.

Let's get down to the solution.

I'll start with this question...

If masturbation uses our imagination against us and wins 100% of the time, why not us too?

Now, how exactly do you do that?

Unique Sexual Transmutation

What do you have a passion for?

It could be repairing electrical appliances...

It could be cooking...

It could be computer coding...

It could be music...

It could be... ANYTHING!

Now... There's no other way I can say this...

YOU HAVE TO BE DELUSIONAL.

Here's what I mean...

You've to assume things have already happened before they do.

Yep! Like a Madman.

Once you do that, your reality becomes different from the reality of life.

As a matter of fact, your new reality will, slowly, begin to distort and bend the reality of life to conform to your new reality.

Sounds crazy?

It should.

Masturbation is a crazy addiction, crazy steps need to be taken to beat it.

Now, Let's say you have a passion for music.

Heck! You don't even need to have a passion for anything. Just choose one thing and stick to it for a long time.

Let's choose music for the sake of this message.

In any Industry, there are big players and small players. Who would you prefer to deal with?

The big players right?

This is a paid document

They bring bigger deals and bigger opportunities.

Now, imagine Burna Boy were your music idol and you wouldn't mind making a few music tracks with him.

The truth is...

You can make that music track with him.

In fact, ANYBODY CAN.

...no matter who you are, where you come from, or your age.

But the only way that can happen is if you turn this piece of imagination into an obsession.

Making it your everyday thought...

Act as if you've already met him and create a movie in your head of how it all happened.

Don't stop. Keeping at it...week one...week two...week three...and SUDDENLY, your brain starts, on its own, to bring new ideas on how all that can happen.

Mind you, you may still be masturbating in that period. it doesn't matter.

Your goal still remains having some tracks with Burna Boy. Let it consume your mind everyday as you wake up.

Any idea your brain drops, act upon it.

Even if it fails, act upon even more ideas as it drops.

If it fails, it only shows you're not prepared enough for it yet.

Go back and Improve!

I Must Warn You... the road will be TOUGH, but keep at it and whatever happens please don't stop thinking and visualizing meeting with him.

Soon... so soon, you'd realize your entire thoughts will drift its attention away from instant sexual pleasure to how to meet your music icon, Burna Boy.

As you work on your new goal, three things will happen:

1. Porn images and flashes will appear less and less.
2. You'll become an improved music artist.
3. You'll, eventually, meet Burna Boy and make that music track with him (if you don't stop).

There's a catch though...Your goal has to be BIG and Almost Impossible to do.

You see, if your goal is just some random stuff anyone can achieve in a short time, it won't move you.

You have to look for BIG, SCARY GOALS!

...scary enough for the average man not to think about.

Want to buy a bank? It's possible...

Want to buy that luxurious duplex so your family can live in it? It's possible...

Want that expensive car? I say it's possible...

It's possible only if you're OBSESSED. Make it your everyday thought, visualize it and watch your sexual thoughts SHRINK.

I'm not just saying this for saying sake, Kevwe is a living testimony.

When I first dropped this idea, he was the first to act upon it.

As you may well know, Kevwe is a fantastic writer. But, being a fantastic writer doesn't mean squat if you can't make money with your writing.

Kevwe chose a big, BIG goal.

What was it?

To write for one of the fund managers of Dangote (The richest man in Africa) — Dapo Willis.

This is a paid document

He visualized working with Dapo Willis for weeks, he even created a scenario in his head (according to him) that he met with him.

Any post Dapo Willis creates online, Kevwe was among the first to see it. It got so deep that he watched every one of his YouTube videos to learn his Forex trading strategy even without being a trader.

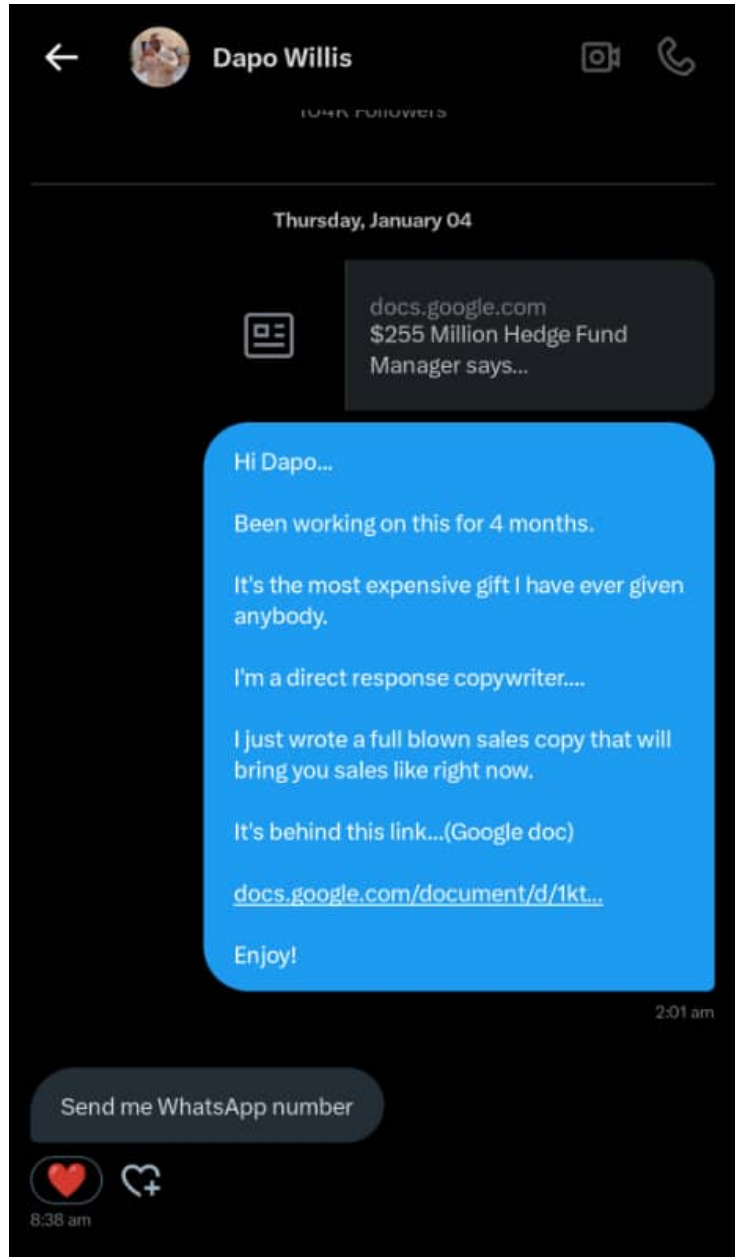

All that occupied his mind was DAPO WILLIS. The thought of sex became tinier and tinier by the day.

On January 04, 2024, Kevwe sent Dapo Willis a direct message on Twitter attaching a sales presentation he worked on for 4 good months.

What happened next?

This is a paid document

A $150 million hedge fund manager (Dapo Willis) requested Kevwe's WhatsApp number!

8 months down the line, he landed a job in one of his subsidiaries.

He won! In three ways.

- Did sexual thoughts keep coming? Yep! But he could take the thought off easily. There were weeks where he didn't even think of Sex because his mind was so stuffed with his new goal.
- He became a better writer as he kept trying to hit his goal.
- He didn't meet Dapo Willis but he got employed in one of his subsidiaries right from his bedroom.

All you need to do is carry out that same simple task for your life and watch how things transition.

...watch how powerful you'll become over uncontrollable sexual urges.

The Simple Task

I'm serious, anybody can do it.

What's that one thing you have always desired but it seems almost impossible? This is an opportunity to make it your main goal.

If it's to take your family out of poverty, good!

Be obsessed over it. Think about it every hour (if possible). Visualize the scene, and assume it has already happened even when it doesn't seem so. If your mind can spring out pictures of a naked lady/guy from thin air, then, it can also create scenarios of you achieving your new goal before you actually do.

This is a paid document

Imagine scenes of you taking your family out to get the Mercedes Benz GLE 450...

Any idea your brain brings up, please, and please, act upon it. Don't stop. Make it your life's work and see how you achieve success.

3 months...5 months...8 months into it, you'll realize you're a BRAND NEW PERSON.

New thoughts...

New obsessions...

New mental attention...

New ideas...

Refined sexual energy, attractive to the opposite sex...

New moves...

New EVERYTHING!

This is where I close off, but before I do, I'd love to say it one more time:

Pick ONE scary goal and obsess yourself over it. Every. Living. Day.

Masturbation and Sexual Lust will have no room in your imagination space.

END.
