

NO REFUND POLICY

Creating a "No Refund Policy" in India is a sensitive matter, and it's important to comply with applicable Indian laws and regulations, such as the Consumer Protection Act, 2019. A well-drafted policy should clearly communicate your company's stance on refunds while adhering to legal requirements. However, please note that a no refund policy may not always be enforceable, and in certain circumstances, consumers may still have the right to request a refund. Consult with a legal professional to ensure that your policy aligns with the law. Below is a template as a starting point:
