Your Daily Posting Structure

7–9am • Video 1 • Morning: Story or Value. Your main content. 45–60 seconds. Full script. Most important post of the day.

12–2pm • Video 2 • Midday: Mindset or Engagement. Short and punchy. 20–30 seconds. A question, hot take, or mindset truth. Gets comments flowing.

7–9pm • Video 3 • Evening: Proof or Soft Sell. Team results, testimonials, or a gentle product mention. Audience is relaxed and browsing.

How to Personalise These Scripts

- Replace [YOUR PRODUCT NAME] with your actual product name throughout
- Replace [RESULT] and [MILESTONE] with real numbers from your team or community
- Swap in your own origin story wherever you see [YOUR STORY] prompts
- Use your own credentials, background and experience — that is your unfair advantage
- Keep all hooks word-for-word — they are designed to stop the scroll

NON-NEGOTIABLES

The 8 Golden Rules

Follow these every single day. No exceptions.

01

Hook in 2 Seconds

Start every video with a bold statement or question. Never start with 'Hey guys.'

03

Reply to Every Comment

TikTok rewards engagement. Replying to comments boosts your video's reach algorithmically.

05

3–5 Hashtags Only

Always: 1 brand + 1 niche + 2–3 volume tags. Each video gets a different set.

07

Post at Peak Times

7–9am · 12–2pm · 7–9pm in your audience's timezone for maximum early engagement.

02

One CTA Only

One action per video: comment, follow, save, or DM. Never more than one.

04

Feature YOU on Camera

Every video should feature you talking to camera. Landscape filler clips kill your reach.

06

Batch Film Weekly

Film 10–15 videos in one session. Same setup. Different topics. Saves time and keeps you consistent.

08

Your Story Is Your Edge

Your background, your pain, your journey. Nobody else has your story. Use it every week.

YOUR STORY IS YOUR UNFAIR ADVANTAGE.

Nobody else on the internet has lived your life. The more specific, honest and personal your content is — the more it will convert.
