To pay off debt?

To be able to afford luxuries... holidays... new car!!!

Let's Talk Money...!

Below is a table of an approximate earning guide based on your slimmer's on 1a or step 2, on a four-week month...

TRAINING... What does it involve?

Years ago, to become a consultant, you had to attend a full day's training in classroom, somewhere in the UK. Now, (thanks to ZOOM!) it can all be done online, in the comfort of your own home, from a laptop or a smart phone.

The Zoom training will cover everything you need to know to become an accredited 1:1 Diet Consultant and will last approximately 3 hours.

You will have breaks to grab a tea or coffee (or a gallon of water if you're on Plan! 😂)

Once the training is finished, you will log back in to the Applicant Hub and complete your Accreditation Questionnaire (all multiple choice answers). Once submitted, you will receive an email letting you know your pass mark, with a link to order your starter kit!

Starting YOUR Business...

Once you have passed your accreditation, you will have the opportunity to purchase one of three amazing starter kits which have been heavily discounted, to give you the best chance of making a good profit and getting your business off to a flying start!

Starter Kit 1 - £100... approx. £1.30 per product PLUS FREE business pack, worth £25!

Starter Kit 2 - £200... approx. 75p per product PLUS FREE business pack, worth £54!

Starter Kit 3 - £600... approx. 90p per product PLUS FREE business pack, worth £100!

No matter which starter kit you choose to purchase, you have 30 days to decide whether or not you would like to take advantage of ordering the booster kit, where the products work out at around 80p per product...

TRUST ME... you will NEVER get the products this cheap again in your whole consultant journey!
