When to Book Entertainment

Timing is everything. Here's your easy-to-follow guide:

Task	When to Schedule
Schedule choreography rehearsal for the grand entrance	2-3 months before
Book your entertainment (Hora Loca, dancers, specialty acts)	1-2 months before the quince
Coordinate with DJ/MC and finalize playlist	1 month before
Confirm final details & run-through	1-2 weeks before

Pro Tip: Book your performers early, the best entertainment slots fill fast, especially on weekends!

Must-Have Entertainment Moments

Make every part of your quince memorable. Here are the moments that wow guests:

- Sets the tone for an unforgettable evening

2. Hora Loca Show

- A high-energy performance that gets everyone on their feet
- Includes fun props, costumes, and audience participation

3. Specialty Acts

- Champagne Skirt, LED performers, or Stilt Walkers
- Adds that “wow factor” your guests will remember forever

4. Family & Friends Performances

- Surprise dances or coordinated group numbers
- Creates emotional and Instagram-worthy moments

Tip: Mix and match to fit your vision — a blend of choreographed dances and live entertainment always makes a celebration feel luxurious and fun.

Avoid These Common Mistakes

Even experienced parents can make these mistakes — here's how to avoid them:

- Waiting too long to hire professionals → The best performers are booked months in advance
- Skipping rehearsals → Choreography should be rehearsed for confidence and timing
- Not coordinating with the DJ/MC → A seamless show requires communication
- Underestimating guest engagement → Interactive acts make memories that last forever
