The Idea Decoder™

If you're here, it means you're full of ideas and that's a beautiful thing.

But even when all your options are good ones, knowing which one to pursue next can feel like a lot.

Not because you're unclear, but because you care about making the right move with intention.

The Idea Decoder is here to help you do exactly that.

This isn't about choosing one idea forever. It's about choosing what makes sense for now, with clarity, purpose, and peace of mind.

You'll walk through a simple, focused system to help you sort your ideas, weigh what's most aligned, and feel confident in your decision.

You don't need more brainstorming. You need a moment to pause, reflect, and prioritize.

Let's get started. ✨

The Idea Decoder™

You don't need to think of more ideas. You need to trust the ones that already exist within you.

When you understand your values, your beliefs, and the goals that are important to you, it makes taking that next step easier.

Compromise-Free Branding

The more clearly you understand who you're speaking to, the more meaningful and effective your message becomes.

You're not trying to reach everyone, you're here to connect with the right ones.
Let's get specific about your people

Use the prompts on the next page to dig in more.

Connection begins when someone feels like you understand them...

Bonus Action Step!

1. Who are you naturally drawn to help (be as specific as you can; think personality, values, or life stage)?

2. What challenges, emotions, or questions are they navigating? What kind of support, healing, or growth are they hoping to experience?

3. What do they need to believe about themselves (or about you) before they can say yes?

The Idea Decoder™

So what do you need to get started, and how this works:

- 3–5 ideas you're considering
- 10 minutes
- Pen or digital copy of this worksheet

How It Works:

- You'll score each idea in 4 categories: Alignment, Energy, Impact, and Ease
- You'll reflect on your totals and how they feel
- You'll choose the one that's most aligned for this season
- You'll walk away with clarity on what to pursue now without discarding the rest

This is not about finding the "best" or "only" option. It's about making an intentional, informed decision based on what matters most to you in this season.

Write down 3–5 ideas you're currently considering

(Examples: starting a podcast, creating a new offer, reworking your brand messaging, applying for speaking gigs)

Take a few moments to capture the ideas that keep circling in your mind.

Don't overthink it. Kind of like a braindump right now, just list the things that have been on your heart or in your notes app lately.

Now it's time to evaluate your ideas with a simple scoring system called The Prioritization Matrix.

Rate each idea from 1 (low) to 5 (high) in each of these four categories:

1. Alignment — Does this idea align with your values, vision, and current season of life?
2. Energy — Does this idea genuinely excite you? Will you enjoy working on it?
3. Impact — Will this idea make a meaningful difference for your business or your audience?
4. Ease — Is this idea doable with your current capacity, time, and resources?

The Prioritization Matrix

After scoring, add up the totals. Then take a moment to reflect before jumping to a decision. The scores are here to guide you, but your gut still gets a say.

Criteria	Idea 1	Idea 2	Idea 3	Idea 4	Idea 5
Alignment
Energy
Impact
Ease
Total

How do you really feel about the scores? Now that you see it on paper, what do you feel is the right next step that you should take.

Keep in mind that you have to be EXCITED about this next step. And also have the capacity to give the right amount of time and effort that it will require.

The Idea Decoder™

Use these prompts to help make your final decision with clarity and confidence:

- Which idea scored the highest? Does that surprise you?
- Which idea are you most excited to bring to life?
- Does your top-scoring idea feel like the right next move? Why or why not?
- Is there one idea that feels most aligned for now, even if you pursue the others later?
- What, if anything, would make your top idea feel more possible right now?

Trust what your heart is telling you. You don't need to justify your choice, you just need to feel grounded in it.

YOU WIN OR YOU LEARN...

It's as simple as that.

The Idea Decoder™

---

You did it. You chose your next move, and that kind of clarity deserves to be celebrated

Now, it's time to give that idea the structure and support it needs to thrive.

In The Compromise F.R.E.E.D.O.M. Roadmap™, I'll help you:

- Build a flexible business framework around your chosen idea
- Create aligned offers, content, and messaging with clarity
- Design a structure that supports your creativity and flow, without boxing you in
- Help you keep track of your financial considerations

If you're ready to move from clarity to momentum, I'd love to see you inside.

There may be many people who do similar work, but no one can replicate your story, your voice, or the way you carry your clients through transformation.

People remember clarity, not complexity.

You were created to create. To serve. To be a blessing to someone else.

Stay focused. Be an ACTION-TAKER.
