

FROM THE BLACK TEMPLE OF CROWS & CROSSROADS

BLOODLINES

From AI Prompt to Blood Oath Offering

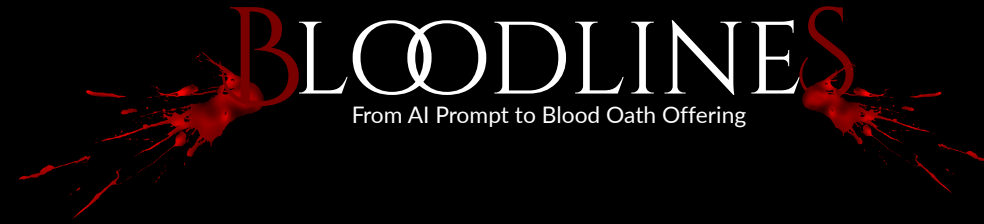

I've been in the copy industry, writing for 6-, 7-, & 8-figure clients, since 2011.

Words I write aren't words.
They're invocations.
And the result?
Millions.

I'm NightTongue, aka Tania Dakka.
And the skills that help me support clients from a wide array of industries are the same skills that you are going to learn.

You're taught that copy is hard.
It's not.
It just demands you bleed for it.
If you want sales.
I'm going to show you how to do that.

The Pain Within the Pain

The words you copy/paste from AI is saving you time...but NOT making you money.

That?

Is not just a problem...

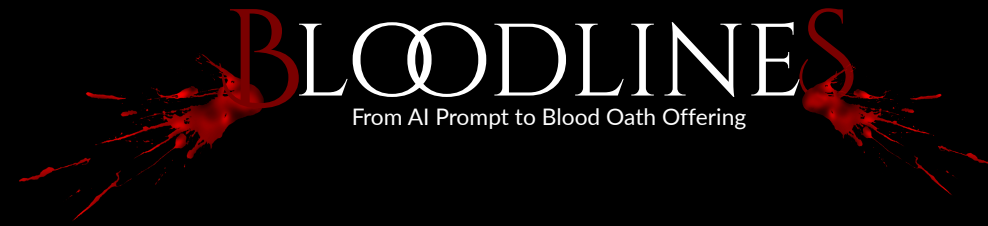

It's a death sentence for your business.

The Blood-Drenched Truth

The solution is EASIER than you think. And it will take you from copying from AI to save time to pasting money into the bank.

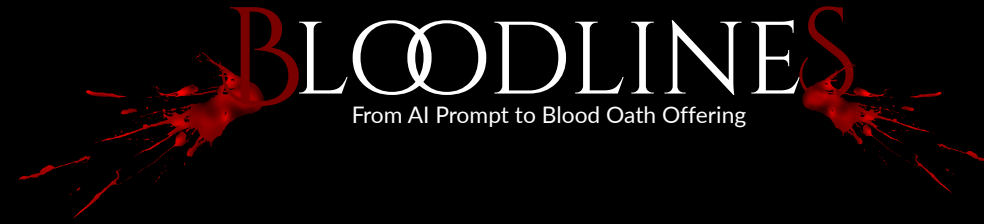

It's a three-part Soul-Injection Method I use for EVERYTHING from social posts to emails to sales copy.

Soul-injection Technique 1

Reality: AI headlines all sound the same...clean, bland, bloodless.

Truth: Headlines convert when they carry a soul-signature (your voiceprint)
+ intrigue.

Soul-injection Technique 2

Reality: AI copy talks at the reader, not with them.

Truth: Sales happen when the reader sees themselves on the page...

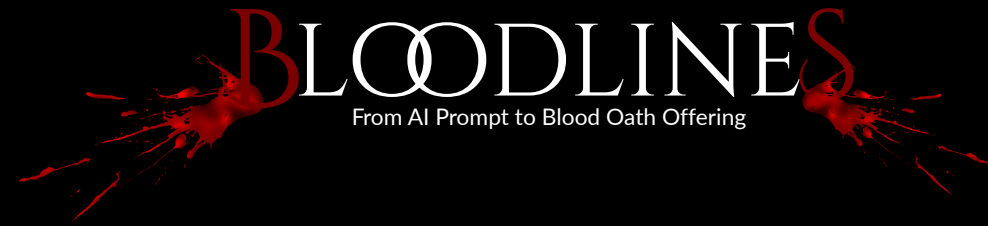

Narrate the Story.

Soul-injection Technique 3

Reality: CTAs feel like a pitch → the reader withdraws.

Truth: The close must feel like invitation, not pressure.

AI is a Tool

And if you use it right...it will save you time, make you more creative, and help you make more money.

An Invitation

If you want help learning to navigate taking your AI prompts to Blood Oaths, you are more than welcome to join the Copy Edge.

You get detailed (NOT generalized) feedback where you learn how to architect words that flow from soul and generate sales through asynchronous copy coaching delivered via email and Google Drive.

It's $27/month for up to 10 pieces of copy...but you'll walk away learning, growing, and becoming the soul-led writer sales demand.

I Honor Your Time

Thank you for being here.

I don't take your time lightly, and I hope you found this more than helpful.

If you are so inclined to leave a testimonial, feel free to email it to taniadakka@proton.me or tag @taniadakka on social media.

Thank you again...and good luck taking your AI prompts to Blood Oath Offerings.
