

Disclaimer

This website is not an official government website and is not affiliated with the Indonesian Government or any immigration authority.

We do not sell, issue, or process arrival cards, visas, or government documents.

Our service is limited to guidance, instructions, redirection, and customer support.

After payment, users are redirected to the official government website, where all forms are completed independently by the traveler.

The official arrival documentation is provided free of charge by the Indonesian government.

Use of this service is optional.