

SOULPRENEUR'S SOLAR
ASTROLOGY GUIDE

WELCOME

Hello, my name is Tammy Mack and I am so excited to be your energetic guide through astrology. I am a Quantum Human Design Specialist and Quantum Alignment Practitioner. When I first discovered these systems, I finally felt seen and heard for who I am rather than what I do. I am an Aquarius sun, Capricorn Rising and Virgo moon. I was always the "weird one" and judged myself harshly in the past. Now I get it, and work in perfect alignment with my astrology chart working part time in mental health/addictions at the hospital while growing my soul-based business by sharing universal wisdom and empowering emerging soulpreneurs.

Are you a soulpreneur looking to tap into your astrological strengths and harness your unique energy in your business? This pdf guide will inspire and help you start to unlock your full potential and align your business with your astrological sign. We are diving into the characteristics and strengths of each sign and how they can be played with in your soul-based business. You may also look up your Ascendant/Rising sign and your moon to get a deeper connection to your chart. You can use your natal chart or dive deeper into your energy through the human design system.

Enjoy,
Tammy Mack

Astrology

When you first download your human design chart or natal chart it can look really confusing! I suggest starting with your ascendant (rising sign), your sun and moon when you start experimenting with this system.

Ascendant Rising Sign

Your ascendant or rising sign is determined by where the sun was rising when you were born. This shows us how we were conditioned in our developmental years and can also play a role in your physical appearance; soul growth and the first impression others get from you.

Sun

The sun allows us to shine our expression, this can show up in your branding as a soulpreneur, how others see you and what your unique gifts are to share with the world. The Sun rules Leo and the 5th House. It changes human design gates every 5 days and every astrological sign every 30 days.

Moon

The moon rules our emotions, feminine energy, and our attraction field. It ebbs and flows. It is deeply connected to your inner world, what makes you feel safe, your daily driver and what you need to feel supported. The moon rules Cancer and the 4th House. It changes signs every 2.5 days.

Earth

The earth isn't shown in your astrology chart; however, you can find it by using a ruler and connecting to the axis or polar opposite. The earth helps your self-nurture and ground so you can shine through your solar expression.

Example of how to use this guide

I use GENETIC MATRIX to download my chart as this source also includes astrology, gene keys and more.

Sun Sign

My solar expression is Aquarius, and I love sharing universal wisdom and a lifelong truth seeker. I share my knowledge with many groups online. With my sun shining through my 2nd house, I focus my energy on sharing through my unique values with a high level of self-worth. As a projector this is vital to being seen and heard as an energy guide and a source of wisdom.

Ascendant/Rising Sign

Others see me as a strong, ambitious powerhouse who thrives with consistency and long-term planning. I am responsible with my resources and share with others when I am able.

Earth

With my earth being in Leo and the 8th house I nurture myself through creative expression. I cultivate confidence through courage. I love deep dives into energy medicine, psychology and human behavior which keeps me grounded as a soul guide.
