

YOUR 2027 COSMIC FIELD GUIDE

Twelve monthly themes to navigate change, reclaim your choices and create what comes next.

BOSS UP & BELIEVE

THE YEAR WE REWRITE THE RULES

Who is running the show?

BOSS UP & BELIEVE

You've spent years learning the rules. About success. Money. Belonging. Being a good woman. Building a business that looks impressive from the outside.

But what happens when the old playbook stops working?

2027 gives us a fascinating symbolic conversation through astrology, Human Design and seasonal wisdom: how do we belong to something bigger without abandoning ourselves?

This guide isn't here to tell you what will happen. It's here to help you notice what's happening within you—and choose how you want to meet it.

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

Read the monthly theme. Sit with its question. Notice the season you're in. Then make one choice that reflects who you're becoming.

Your chart is a conversation, not a courtroom.

The bigger conversation

2027: THE SOVEREIGN & THE COLLECTIVE

11/2 · Reciprocity

In numerology, 2027 is often read as an 11/2 year: partnership, intuition and the art of belonging without self-erasure.

The Fire Goat · Creative stewardship

In the Chinese zodiac, the Fire Goat year begins February 6. Think collaboration, artistry and care—not another race to the finish line.

The 2027 Human Design transition

The traditional Human Design teaching describes a transition from the Cross of Planning to the Cross of the Sleeping Phoenix. Treat this as a lens for self-trust, not a prediction of social collapse.

Eclipses · Change the lens

The 2027 eclipse seasons invite symbolic reflection on the individual and collective, visibility and service. You don't need to fear an eclipse to learn from it.

Retrogrades · Review, not punishment

Retrogrades are apparent planetary motion from Earth. Astrologically, they're useful invitations to review and refine, not blanket instructions to stop living.

Winter to Spring

YOUR MONTHLY SOUL THEMES

JANUARY

WHO'S RUNNING THE SHOW?

Visionary Planning

Winter is not a failure to launch. With Capricorn's structure and Aquarius's vision, tend your inner fire before taking your plans public. Choose a direction because it's yours—not because your ego needs proof.

SOUL QUESTION: What would I choose if I had nothing to prove?

FEBRUARY

CHANGING OF THE GUARDS

The Great Threshold

Eclipses and the Human Design transition create a potent symbolic threshold. The question isn't who will save us. It's who gets to write the future—and where we hand away our authority.

SOUL QUESTION: Which old agreement no longer deserves my loyalty?

MARCH

ROOT TO RISE

Visionary Leadership

Spring and Wood energy bring attention to tendencies, habits and the roots beneath our big ideas. The future isn't built by vision alone; it's built by what we practice.

SOUL QUESTION: Which habit would make my vision sustainable?

From Grounding to Inner Knowin

YOUR MONTHLY SOUL THEMES

APRIL

GROUNDED MOMENTUM

From Insight to Action

April asks us to give our vision legs. Momentum doesn't have to mean hustle. Use your time, energy and resources deliberately, and choose the next honest step.

SOUL QUESTION: What action would move me forward without draining me?

MAY

THE CONSCIOUS ECONOMY

Worth, Money & Resources

Chiron in Taurus gives us a symbolic conversation about security, self-worth and what we call valuable. A conscious economy begins with how we steward our own life force.

SOUL QUESTION: What am I spending my energy on that no longer reflects my values?

JUNE

INTUITION: THE LANGUAGE OF THE SOUL

Inner Tech Meets Outer Tech

With Uranus in Gemini, we have plenty to say about AI, information and communication. But our inner technology matters too. Mercury's Cancer retrograde invites a look at the protective stories we carry.

SOUL QUESTION: Where am I outsourcing my inner knowing?

Courage, Harvest & Enough

YOUR MONTHLY SOUL THEMES

JULY

COURAGE IS YOUR CROWN

Truly Seen, Not Performing

Leo invites courage; Venus softens the performance. Being seen isn't the same as being known. Let your authentic self have a turn at the microphone.

SOUL QUESTION: Where am I performing instead of allowing myself to be seen?

AUGUST

BALANCE, HARMONY, HARVEST

Devotion Is the New Discipline

Harvest brings us back to Mama Earth, the body and stewardship. Take stock of what grew and what needs tending. Conservation is part of devotion.

SOUL QUESTION: What have I cultivated that deserves consistent care?

SEPTEMBER

THE SACRED ART OF ENOUGH

Discernment & Capacity

The autumn equinox invites us to sort the harvest. Gratitude doesn't require us to carry everything. Enough is not settling; it is knowing what matters.

SOUL QUESTION: What can I release without calling it failure?

Transformation & Renewal

YOUR MONTHLY SOUL THEMES

OCTOBER

DEEP TRANSFORMATION

The Wisdom of the Underworld

As the year turns inward, we meet the stories we've outgrown. The sacred scar can hold wisdom without becoming a life sentence.

SOUL QUESTION: What am I ready to stop carrying as my identity?

NOVEMBER

EXPANSION & EXPLORATION

A Wider Horizon

After the descent comes possibility. Let curiosity lead you beyond inherited maps, fixed identities and stories that have already served their purpose.

SOUL QUESTION: What becomes possible when I stop consulting the old script?

DECEMBER

FOUNDATION SETTING

Honor the Dark

Water season and the winter solstice invite reflection, rest and conservation. Before you set another goal, notice what the year has taught you.

SOUL QUESTION: What deserves my devotion in the year ahead?

Choose your word

NOT ANOTHER RULE. YOUR OWN COMPASS.

1 · Remember

When did you feel most like yourself this past year? What quality was present?

2 · Listen

What do you want more of on an ordinary Tuesday—not just on a vision board?

3 · Name it

Write five words that describe how you want to meet 2027. Which one feels like a decision?

4 · Live it

Before a big yes or no, ask: Does this choice honor my word?

MY WORD FOR 2027

ONE CHOICE I CAN MAKE THIS MONTH

Devotion is the new discipline.

You don't have to do it alone.

A note on the cosmos

REFLECTION IS NOT A VERDICT.

This guide uses astrology, numerology, the Chinese zodiac and Human Design as symbolic or traditional frameworks for reflection. They are not scientifically established methods for predicting personal or collective events.

The 2027 Human Design transition is a teaching within that system; your individual chart and authority do not change because of a collective date. Eclipses and retrogrades are astronomical phenomena; their spiritual interpretations are optional.

Nothing in this guide is financial, medical or legal advice. Make decisions using your own judgment, circumstances and qualified support where appropriate.
