Discover Your Divine Life Purpose

Biblical Principles to discover your life purpose & fulfil your life mandate as designed by God

DR FAITH ELIZABETH NANYONGA | TRANSFORM YOU

Welcome

My prayer for you

Heavenly Father GOD, I pray that you give this lady a deep revelation of what you have called her to pursue and live on this earth. You created her with a unique blend of talents, gifts and abilities to fulfil your purpose. I pray that her heart will be flooded with light so that she can understand the confident hope you have given her and her glorious inheritance in you.

The purpose in a man's heart is like deep water, but a man of understanding will draw it out. Proverbs 20:5

You are created with a purpose for a purpose. Discovering this purpose will help you live a fulfilled life and ensure you fulfil the intention of why GOD took time to intricately and delicately create you as a unique abled human being.

This ebook will help you unleash your reason for being, which reason when unveiled will allow you to live a purposeful life.

Welcome, I am privileged to help you unlock your true meaning in life.

Faith Liz

You are not an accident

Jeremiah 1:5

“Before I formed you in the womb I knew [and] approved of you [as My chosen instrument], and before you were born I separated and set you apart, consecrating you; [and] I appointed you as a prophet to the nations”. (AMP-C)

God created you for a purpose and knew you even before the foundations of this world were laid that you would be alive this year and now.

Have a second to think about it.

He is the Alpha and the Omega (the beginning and the end); the master planner and the fulfiller of our wildest dreams.

What better way to discover our purpose than to inquire from HIM, our creator?

Just as you inquire of the manufacturer (user's manual) for any electric gadget you have, it is our duty and due diligence to ask GOD our creator why He created us. As Jesus got to the synagogue and opened the book to find where He was written about. He opened Luke 4:17-20. You, too, were written about in the book. Your purpose was pre-determined.

For whom He foreknew, He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son, that He might be the firstborn among many brethren. Moreover, whom He predestined, these He also called; whom He called, these He also justified; and whom He justified, these He also glorified. Romans 8:29-30 NKJV

A 3-storeyed building is created with a foundation that can hold a 3-storeyed building structure. From the planning, architectural design, materials and skilled labour, the purpose and structure of this building are depicted.

Your design is perfect for your purpose. It is this purpose that produces design, and eventually, the design predicts your potential (a three-storeyed building)

Your life purpose was pre-determined before your existence. This purpose determines your function and why you are uniquely created

Five truths about You

1. You are not your creator. GOD created you, designed you, and prepared specific works for you, not for anybody else, to do. You are custom-made & perfected for a unique good work
2. Do you have a purpose? Yes, and you are already equipped for it. GOD had this purpose in mind the day he created you, and in his work of redeeming, forgiving, purifying, and restoring you, he is enabling you to walk in that purpose.
3. GOD created you good and in HIS own image. you are HIS masterpiece. When you forget or disregard this truth, you miss the point. Do not downplay your awesomeness
4. Everything within you screams purpose: Your talents, your abilities, your interests, your strengths and your dreams.
5. You are the highest creation ever made by God. He saved the best for the last, that after He created you, he rested from all His works

"For You formed my inward parts; You covered me in my mother's womb. I will praise You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made; Marvelous are Your works, And that my soul knows very well. My frame was not hidden from You, When I was made in secret, And skillfully wrought in the lowest parts of the earth. Your eyes saw my substance, being yet unformed. And in Your book they all were written, The days fashioned for me, When as yet there were none of them".

Psalms 139: 13-16 (NKJV)

Four lenses to look at Purpose

The Lens of Sovereignty:

God is the architect; an assignment or purpose is not suggested. Its mandate is tied to your specific time in history. Hannah could only have Samuel when Israel needed to have a new prophet. Likewise, Elizabeth could only have John the Baptist at the specific time of Jesus's birth. (1 Samuel 1 and 2, Luke 1 and 2)

The Lens of Stewardship

You do not own your life; you manage it. Your gifts, talents, interests and strengths are entrusted to you by God to fulfil a purpose.

The Lens of Eternity

Your purpose should echo to eternity. You gather fruit for eternal purpose. There is an eternal weight of glory tied to life after. "And he who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit for eternal life, that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together, John 4:36"

The Lens of Honour

Everything you are and your purpose should be used to show the world who God is. Jesus teaches that we should bear fruit and that fruit should remain so that The Father receives glory and honour. Paul also writes and says, "So whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do it all for the glory of God, 1Corinthians 10:31.

"Not in your own strength] for it is God Who is all the while effectually at work in you [energising and creating in you the power and desire], both to will and to work for His good pleasure and satisfaction and delight.

Philippians 2:13 (AMP-C)

God pre-determined your purpose on this earth

Isaiah 46: 9-10

Remember the former things, those of long ago; I am God, and there is no other; I am God, and there is none like me. I make known the end from the beginning, from ancient times, what is still to come. say, 'My purpose will stand, and I will do all that I please.

NIV

In Hebrew culture, there is a word, "Tikkun Olam," which means the world is broken, and humans must help repair it. It reflects the belief that it is our responsibility to create and be the change we want to see. Children are raised to be changemakers, with a strong emphasis on making the world a better place.

Likewise, picture this: God created you and formed you with this mandate in mind: to subdue and to dominate, to occupy until He comes. Your role is to cause the Kingdom of God to reign on earth. To do this, you must discover your place in this mandate, take this path, and walk it faithfully. This is your life purpose. This is your calling. This is your IKIGAI; your reason for being.

The day I discovered this secret, my brain opened up to a new reality. All along, I had a purpose. All along everything: I like, I enjoy, I can do with ease, and everything I cannot stop thinking about is connected to my purpose of being!

QUESTIONS TO PONDER ON

- ✓ What do you enjoy?
- ✓ What can't you keep thinking about?
- ✓ What comes so easily to you?
- ✓ What can you do for hours without feeling tired?
- ✓ What do you spend time studying and researching?
- ✓ What lights you up?

Ephesians 2:10

For we are God's [own] handiwork (His workmanship), recreated in Christ Jesus, [born anew] that we may do those good works which God predestined (planned beforehand) for us [taking paths which He prepared ahead of time], that we should walk in them [living the good life which He prearranged and made ready for us to live].

AMP-C

Let's dissect this scripture from Greek to English

Finding your purpose is about locating yourself in the mission of God. It is how you find and align yourself in His plan. You need an awakening. Your assignment is the specific way God intends for you to manifest his glory and advance His kingdom based on how He designed you. You were composed, not mass produced. You were fearfully and wonderfully made.

The word "handiwork" comes from the Greek word poiēma, meaning a work of art or a masterpiece. You are not a mistake or an accident. God custom-designed you.

For Good Works means:

1. Business, employment, that which anyone undertakes to do, enterprise, undertaking.
2. Any product, whatever, anything accomplished by hand, art, industry or mind.

Beforehand means:

Your assignment was predetermined. It existed before you did. You do not create your purpose. But you discover what God has already established in His sovereignty.

Walk in them means:

Success. It determines the biblical understanding of success. Success is alignment. To align yourself with and in what God already designed for you. To walk in the path already cut by Grace.

The Burdens You Carry

1. Moses, though raised in Pharaoh's household, was burdened by the suffering of the Israelites and acted to defend them by killing an Egyptian. Though his action was premature, it revealed a burden that God later shaped and used, ultimately calling Moses to lead the Israelites out of bondage and rescue them from Egypt (The book of Exodus).
2. Nehemiah, a Jew born in Persia during the Exile, was a cupbearer to Persia's king Artaxerxes. But when he heard the news about the ruins of the wall of Jerusalem, this burden caused him to weep, pray, and act. It was this burden that restored the wall of Jerusalem. (The book of Nehemiah)
3. Mordecai was deeply burdened by the suffering and danger facing his fellow Jews, which led him to pray and fast continually. When the decree to destroy the Jews was issued, he carried this burden to Esther, reminding her that God had placed her in the palace for a purpose and urging her not to remain silent. They both saved their fellow Jews. (The book of Esther)
4. Saul, later known as Paul, was burdened with preserving Jewish beliefs, which led him to persecute those of the Way. God later transformed this same burden and used it to establish the first apostolic ministry to the Gentiles. Acts 9

"So it was, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned for many days; I was fasting and praying before the God of heaven. Nehemiah 1:4 (NKJV)

By faith Moses, when he became of age, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than to enjoy the passing pleasures of sin, esteeming the [h]reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt; for he looked to the reward.

Hebrews 11:24-25 (NKJV)

Story of Moses

Moses believed he would rescue his fellow Israelites. He believed his upbringing by Pharaoh was not an accident but rather to fulfil his purpose.

In Exodus 2:11-25, Moses takes matters into his own hands to rescue a fellow Israelite being mistreated by an Egyptian slave master. Moses had an inkling of his purpose but without GOD's guidance, he ended up frustrating his purpose. As a result, he fled from Egypt to Midian for his safety.

In Exodus 3, Moses encounters GOD through a burning bush, and his calling began the GOD Way, not Moses's way. The rest is history as clearly articulated in Exodus, Deuteronomy, Leviticus and Numbers.

All the events that happened in Moses's life before his encounter with GOD were purposefully orchestrated by GOD. Moses knew this fact but without an explicit detailed revelation of his purpose, he frustrated it.

1. What can you learn from Moses's story when it comes to your life?
2. What has led you to where you are right now?

Also, See Acts 7:36

The Witness of the Holy Spirit

As you begin to build intimacy with the Holy Spirit, He will start to reveal things to you and affirm you in them. He will open your eyes and show you those specific gifts he has empowered you with. In 1 Peter 4:10-11, Peter writes and says, “As each one has received a gift, minister it to one another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. If anyone speaks, let him speak as the oracles of God. If anyone ministers, let him do it as with the ability which God supplies, that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belong the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

important tip

Where do you produce the most fruit with the least amount of forced effort? What is the thing you do effortlessly?

Most times you will find that you detest and undermine these activities that come easily for you.

As you begin to use these gifts for the glory of God, He will vindicate you, bear witness, and equip you. These gifts will emerge naturally within you. For instance, before God confirmed me as a coach and an apostle for His work, every time I stood on a stage to share God's goodness or joined a call to speak and coach, my audience would leave edified and encouraged, with clear strategies to apply. In coaching, as my clients implemented what I taught them, they experienced tangible results: soul healing, job promotions, scholarships, and thriving businesses.

This was God vindicating me and confirming that He had indeed chosen me to help people get unstuck. I have seen countless testimonials, even from brief calls and conversations. I bring life, and I speak life into people.

We see this when Nicodemus comes to Jesus in John 3: 1-2 AMP-C

“Now there was a certain man among the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler (a leader, an authority) among the Jews, Who came to Jesus at night and said to Him, Rabbi, we know and are certain that You have come from God [as] a Teacher; for no one can do these signs (these wonder works, these miracles, and produce the proofs) that You do unless God is with Him”. John 3: 1-2 (AMP-C)

important tip

We can rest in the knowledge that God wastes nothing. He's the expert at taking our blunders, misfortunes, experiences, mishaps, and messes and transforming them into powerful redemption testimonies.

Ponder:

1. What experiences is God highlighting in your life that are connected to your divine purpose?
2. How can I use these experiences for the glory of God?

Providential Position

We may not be the same, but we all have life experiences that trace back to our upbringing—the schools we attended, the trials and traumas we endured, the places we have lived, and even our area codes. Perhaps you have looked at your life and concluded that there is nothing God can use to shape your destiny and purpose. But today, I charge you to look again.

Jesus shows us this in John 9, in the story of the man born blind. His disciples asked Him, “Who sinned?” Jesus answered, saying, “Neither this man nor his parents sinned, but this happened so that the works of God might be displayed in him.”

We see this again in the story of Esther, an orphan, a Jew, and an exile living with her cousin Mordecai. Vashti's disobedience, the officials' counsel to the king, the search for a new queen, Haman's decree, Esther's eventual selection as queen, Mordecai's counsel to Esther and her call for a fast that led to the salvation of the Jews; nothing was accidental. Everything unfolded to fulfil the will and purpose of God.

Paul writes and reassures us:

And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose. Romans 8:28 NKJV

“And Mordecai told them to answer Esther: 'Do not think in your heart that you will escape in the king's palace any more than all the other Jews. For if you remain completely silent at this time, relief and deliverance will arise for the Jews from another place, but you and your father's house will perish. Yet who knows whether you have come to the kingdom for such a time as this?'” Esther 4:13–14 NKJV

The Affirmations of the Righteous

1. God often sends people to affirm your calling-true purpose is confirmed among the righteous. We see this in the story of Barnabas, Saul, turned Paul the apostle. The prophets and teachers affirmed the calling on Barnabas and Saul.

In Acts 13:1-2 it's written: "Now in the church that was at Antioch there were certain prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. As they ministered to the Lord and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, "Now separate to Me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them."

2. God always sends trusted people into your life to affirm your purpose. Proverbs 15:22 says, "Without counsel purposes are disappointed: but in the multitude of counsellors they are established". Similarly, Proverbs 20:18 reminds us, "Every purpose is established by counsel: and with good advice make war."

When you have trusted advisers and counsellors, you will notice that they point you toward and encourage you in the areas to which you are called. Simon Peter, James, and John, the sons of Zebedee, were fishermen.

On the day they met Jesus, He called them to become fishers of men. These two callings share many similarities. Both involve gathering, whether fish from the water or people toward faith and purpose. Both require patience, perseverance, and skill, since success does not come instantly and depends on knowing the right approach. Ultimately, each reflects a calling rather than merely a task, demanding commitment, purpose, and responsibility.

It is no wonder, then, that these men became the first apostles to preach the gospel boldly after Jesus' death and resurrection.

Sanctified Desire

God's assignments are not misery when your will is surrendered. He plants desire in your heart, and you come to love what He has called you to do.

You will find yourself genuinely loving His calling on your life. Wherever God manifests His glory, there is also a reconciliation with joy, the gladness of the heart. The question is this: What is that thing that, when you do it, you go to bed deeply happy?

When you delight yourself in the Lord, He gives you the desires of your heart, not by indulging selfish wants, but by planting within you desires that align with His will. As Paul writes in Philippians 2:13, "For God is working in you, giving you the desire and the power to do what pleases Him."

God, by His power, works within you, shaping your desires and empowering you to live in a way that delights Him.

important tip

What is that thing that, despite the fear and the lack of resources to do it, you still find the desire and satisfaction to do it. Every time you do it, you feel satisfaction

Two things often hinder our purpose: fear and finances. But thank God the Bible reminds us,

"Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think of anything as being from ourselves, but our sufficiency is from God, who has also made us sufficient as ministers of the new covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life."

2 Corinthians 3:5-6 NJKV

When you understand this truth, make this your resolve: never allow fear or finances to hinder your purpose. God is your sufficiency.

Through desire a man, having separated himself, seeketh and intermeddleth with all wisdom.

Proverbs 18:1 KJV

Dreams & Visions

Dreams and visions reveal GOD's word to us. Both in the Old and New Testaments of the Bible, GOD spoke to people through dreams and visions. In present times, GOD not only still speaks to us in dreams and visions but also through HIS Holy Spirit: through your thoughts, intuitions and nudges. But most times we are not keen enough to hear these communications so we do not heed the instructions, foreknowledge, warnings, advice and guidance we receive. Take a second to Imagine what would happen if we did.

Have you taken time to take note of your intuitions, your random thoughts (as you have them) or your dreams of the night? If you have not started to do so, please start today.

Long before Joseph became the highest-ranked man in Egypt, he had dreams (2 dreams). These dreams foreshadowed what would turn into his reality. Albeit, if he had not told his brothers, I do not think he would have suffered the sale into slavery, and eventual imprisonment at the hand of Pontiphar's wife's allegations. But from a young age, Joseph was destined to rule over his brothers, mother and father.

(See Genesis 37 to 45)

*Every gift placed in you is for a purpose to serve others
& fulfil your GOD pre-assigned purpose
1 Peter 4:10*

Talents & Abilities

The talents placed in you are for your benefit. God has given you these talents based on your capacity. It is up to you to put them to work so that you can reap a profit (fulfilment). Unknown purpose always wastes time and gives room for possible danger as well as misuse of what was created.

If you want to know the purpose of a product ask the manufacturer. Manufacturers always provide user manuals to help you understand the intended use of a product and answer any FAQs. Have you taken time to ask GOD why He created you? Create a conducive environment, sit down, get a pen and journal and start writing whatever GOD is speaking to you through your thoughts,

- ✓ Journal your dreams, your thoughts, your interests. This is self-reflection. Reflect on your life and uncover what has led you to who and where you are right now in life.
- ✓ Ask the Holy Spirit to highlight anything (interests, passions, talents and skills God has inherently given you). You will be amazed by what He can reveal. The aspects (strengths) you always disregard are usually what GOD wants you to utilise.

“For the kingdom of heaven is like a man traveling to a far country, who called his own servants and delivered his goods to them. And to one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one, to each according to his own ability; and immediately he went on a journey”.

Matthew 25:14-16 (NKJV)

Talent Inventory

When we're trying to figure out what to do, the first thing to find out is what GOD has given us.

What has GOD gifted you with? What are your natural talents, abilities, affinities, interests, and the aspects you seem to be wired (designed) for?

Don't just think of talents" in an artistic sense.

- If you are naturally empathetic, that's a talent.
- If you are a good communicator or effective at conflict resolution, that's a talent.
- If you give good advice, that's a talent.
- If you make people laugh, that's a talent.
- If you can see the bright side of situations, that's a talent
- If you can motivate others, that's a talent
- If you are logical and mathematical, that's a talent.
- If you are emotional, that's a talent
- If you are good at bringing people together, that's a talent
- if you are a nurturer, that's a talent
- if you are thoughtful and approachable, that's a talent.

The list is endless.

The roles you play also constitute your purpose. Say you are called to be a parent, you can start looking at your little ones as a calling and purpose for you life to nurture them in a Godly manner and raise them to the glory of GOD.

Say a writer, you can use your writings to fulfil your GOD-given mandate on earth

AFFIRMATION

I can enjoy my life and start to live purposefully knowing I am fulfilling my life dreams.

Your nature

When GOD created you, He built into you all the necessities for performing your purposed assignment. You all possess natural inherent traits required for your purpose. In essence, you are the way you are because of why you are.

Your purpose coincides with your natural talents and abilities.

Finding your pre-destined God's will for your life is entwined in all things you love. God does not require anything from you that HE has not already placed in you.

You have what you need to be who you are and fulfil your life mandate as designed by GOD.

Prayer

Heavenly Father GOD, in the name of Jesus, thank you for creating me with all I need to live out my purpose. Today, I pray that through your Holy Spirit, YOU may highlight my talents, gifts, interests and passions that were created within me and give me a divine revelation so that I can put them to the best use for the purpose for which YOU placed me on this earth.

Manifesting

But all things that are exposed are made manifest by the light, for whatever makes manifest is light.

Ephesians 5:13

To manifest is: To bring to light, to reveal, and to showcase and to show. "There are two things we are called to do with our talents, abilities, affinities and gifts. We are called to:

1. Manifest God's character.
2. Manifest God's will.

Proverbs 19:2

Also, it is not good for a person to be without knowledge. He who hurries with his feet [acting impulsively and proceeding without caution or analysing the consequences] sins (misses the mark). AMP-C.

Enthusiasm without knowledge is not good. If you act too quickly, you might make a mistake. Even zeal (desire/enthusiasm/ interest) without knowledge is not good.

Having much zeal and lacking knowledge can be frustrating, making you feel overwhelmed and eventually stuck. You won't be confident to take steps in the direction you think you should. As a result, you are unable to achieve your goals and feel a fulfilled life as GOD designed it for you.

I hope this e-book has given you a divine revelation of your purpose. GOD wants you to live purposefully and complete your GOD-given mandate for HIS kingdom on this earth.

Manifesting God's will

For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, who desires (wills) all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth

1 Timothy 2:3-4

Prosperity

Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be in health, just as your soul prospers.

3 John 2

Blessed living

The bible is filled with so many scriptures that state that GOD's plan and will for man is to live a prosperous life, a blessed life, in peace and harmony as well as fulfilment. Whatever success means to you, that's what GOD wants for you.

Have a minute to ponder on this fact.

GOD created the earth to be filled but not be empty. HE gave man the authority to subdue to earth and make it his dwelling.

GOD gives us the power to make wealth (Deuteronomy 8:17-18 NKJV). John answered and said, "A man can receive nothing unless it has been given to him from heaven. (John 3:27 NKJV). Everything in you is from GOD and you have received everything for your life purpose

For thus says the Lord, Who created the heavens, Who is God, Who formed the earth and made it, Who has established it, Who did not create it in vain, Who formed it to be inhabited:

"I am the Lord, and there is no other

Isaiah 45:18

Manifesting God's character

God is love and this is the greatest commandment for all mankind. God yearns that we love HIM with all our hearts, souls, minds and beings. HE yearns that we love all HIS creation as we love ourselves.

See Matthew 22:37-40

1 John 4:7-8

Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God, and everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. He who does not love does not know God, for God is love.

How can you put your gifts (talents) to love GOD and his creation?
How can you reveal God's Character to others through your life?

Isaiah 43:7

Everyone who is called by My name,
Whom I have created for My glory;
I have formed him, yes, I have made him."

Therefore, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.

1 Corinthians 10:31

About Me

From a young age, I knew I was called to help people. Everything I have achieved and done up to this stage of my life has been fueled by something bigger than me.

I have always believed in people, empowered people, treated people (medically), researched how to cure diseases that devastate people (biotechnology-wise) and celebrated seeing people break barriers and achieve their goals, purpose and dreams (coaching, podcasting, and now YouTube) which GOD created them to achieve.

I live and breathe empowerment, and it is this life purpose, which has enabled me to live a fulfilled life as GOD intended it for me. I have empowered myself through education, reading, researching, mentorship and seeking GOD's guidance.

But this was not always the case, for a while I thought these were mere interests, topics that intrigued me and kept me digging the rabbit hole of I believe there is more to life than a mere job title, a career and a paycheck.

Right at a point where I was contemplating my existence, GOD unravelled this hidden mystery of purpose and ever since then, everything I have done has been aligned with what GOD created me to be and fulfil His Kingdom's mandate for my life.

Today, I am here to welcome you to tap into that. I want every woman to know that nothing is impossible to her who believes.

Faith in God, education, and self-leadership have enabled me to create opportunities for myself, my family, and others. This passion fuels my work as a leader and mentor. I want to see great women making great money and a meaningful difference in this world.

CHRISTINE'S TRANSFORMATION

Business Launched in 6 weeks

Today, I introduce you to Christine.

When I first met her, she was working a quiet 8–5 job as an administrator. But from the very beginning, I could tell that there was more:

- ✨ More vision.
- ✨ More heart
- ✨ More purpose waiting to be lived.

And then, in one conversation, she let me in; that was the spark ✨.

Together, we turned it into a flame 🔥.

In just four weeks, Christine launched her dream business, Kultural Threads, an idea she had had for close to 5 years.

In four weeks, Christine had a clear strategy, sourced her first stock, and began showcasing the beauty of African fabrics while supporting local artisans. And best of all? A part of the profit from every sale funds a child's education

Just this September, Christine messaged me saying that she had made her biggest sale yet, over $900, without lifting a finger, in the comfort of her home. Her dream is real. Her impact is growing.

She has now opened up another Kultural Threads Shop in Uganda to augment her influence and impact.

And it all started with one step: Getting Unstuck.

KULTURAL THREADS

Supporting a child's education and livelihood one sale at a time.

Dr MAYIMUNA NALUBEGA'S

PhD Acquired & Generating new therapeutics against Malaria

Today, I introduce to you Dr Mayimuna Nalubega.

When I first met her, she was looking for clarity and advancement in her career. She had completed her MSc in Immunology from the University of Manchester, U.K., and had returned to Uganda as a condition of her MSc scholarship.

She knew she wanted to pursue a PhD to become an independent immunologist, but she did not know where to start or how to obtain a PhD candidature.

This is what she had to say:

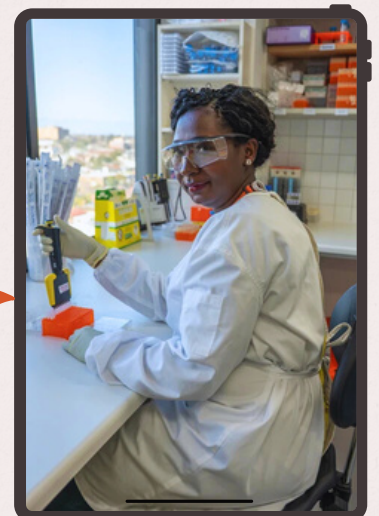

Many times, we never know how close we are to achieving our dreams until we talk to someone. In 2018, during my search for a PhD opportunity, the competitiveness of the available positions seemed overwhelming until I was introduced to Dr Faith Elizabeth Nanyonga by a mutual friend.

Since then, I have never looked back. She inspired me greatly and filled me with renewed enthusiasm to pursue my dream. She guided me in how to overcome imposter syndrome and go after what I knew I wanted, but fear had caged me in.

Today, I have a PhD from the University of Queensland, Australia. I have recently secured a position as a Research Officer at the Burnet Institute in Melbourne, Australia, all because of Faith's mentorship and coaching.

Thank you so much, Faith, and keep up the great work."

SHAMIM'S TRANSFORMATION

Shamim came from being stuck in her career to a career with purpose. She defied her status quo and her academic background to go after what she believed was hers. Right now, she is helping organisations set up mental health policies to support their employees.

SHAMMIM'S STORY & TESTIMONIAL

This could be you:

Just like Shamim, you are a woman called to influence and challenge status quos, to build businesses, ministries, programs, movements, communities, books, service-based brands, coaching offers, and creative works, name it.

But because you lack clarity and confidence, you remain hidden.

You are brilliant, gifted, and called, but broke, confused, and overwhelmed.

You should be leading, but you are still lurking.

God is calling you out of the shadows.

This mentorship was created to take you from stuck to strategic, from broke to blessed, from silenced to influential, from confused to called, from pain to purpose.

Hi, I'm Faith Liz,

Transform Your Life: You deserve it.

Over the years, I have achieved all the goals I have set. Some have been a smooth sailing, while others have taken longer, more strategic tackling, resetting and refocusing. On all these accounts 3 things have worked for me:

- 1. Self awareness
- 2. Exploring my options
- 3. Taking action

With self awareness, I have discovered my strengths, weaknesses, mindset paradigms, established a strategic plan to achieve any goal. One thing I have discovered is that it is from the seemingly small (minute/ tiny/ atomic) habits that big changes (leaps and bounds) are made. You are a product of your habits.

So I am here to help you transform in my easy and effective manner. You will be surprised how much you can change
