

SUCCESS ON GOD'S TERMS

Success on God's Terms is a powerful book that draws a clear line between God's view of success and human's view of success. This book clearly defines the distinction between both views and the value of both kinds of success eternally.

This book invites readers to examine both views and make a choice on which type of success to subscribe to. However, the book also comes with a compelling appeal to readers to make a choice that will make their success journey an eternal heritage.

THE BUSINESS WORLD AND GLOBAL ECONOMY:

The Business World and Global Economy: This book is a must-read for entrepreneurs and business enthusiasts as it serves as a comprehensive guide to turn your innovative ideas into reality and make informed decisions. The author's straightforward approach makes it easy to understand how to succeed in the global economy. Let this book be your roadmap to success in the business world.

A WOMAN OF HONOUR

This book is an essential read for anyone who wishes to appreciate the profound impact one individual can have on society.

It unfolds the life of an exemplary woman whose dedication to service and humanity serves as an inspiration to all. The author's heartfelt narrative captures the essence of her contributions and the legacy she will leave behind.

Let this book be your guide to understanding the true measure of human greatness.

MARKET PLACE READINESS

Marketplace Readiness is a wholesome guide for transitioning into economic independence.

The themes discussed in this book pick rhythm from young people's final years on campus to entering the marketplace. Every tool required to get ready for the marketplace is robustly discussed.

But beyond entering the marketplace, this book also talks about thriving in the marketplace.

