WELCOME GUIDE

“This is where we begin.”

Hi, I’m Jenni.

Before our call, I want you to take a moment to slow down.

This isn’t a sales call.

It’s a space to see clearly.

You don’t need to impress me.
You don’t need to have the right words.

Just come as you are.

WELCOME

BEFORE WE SPEAK...

Before our call, I want to give you something to sit with.

I created a short guide called:
“5 Ways You Keep Your Ego Hooked”

This will help you start seeing some of the subtle patterns that keep repeating — the ones that often go unnoticed.

Not to fix them.
Just to become aware of them.

You can access it here:

The Unbound Shift- Free PDF

Take your time with it.

Notice what resonates.
Notice what feels familiar.

Bring that awareness into our call.

WHAT THIS CALL IS (AND ISN'T)

This call is for...

- Looking at what's really going on beneath your patterns
- Seeing where you're still identifying with old stories
- Exploring if working together is aligned

This call is NOT for...

- A quick fix
- A place for surface-level advice
- About convincing you of anything

WHAT YOU LIKELY CAME HERE FOR

You might be here because:

- You feel like you understand the work... but something isn't shifting
- Patterns keep repeating in relationships, money, or self-worth
- You're tired of trying to "get it right"
- You know there's more, but you can't quite access it consistently

This is where you separate yourself.

My work is not about fixing you.

It's about seeing clearly:

- The identity you're operating from
- The patterns that are unconsciously repeating
- The subtle ways you're still seeking outside of yourself

We don't force change.

We bring awareness to what's already there — and from that, things begin to shift naturally.

What Working Together Looks Like

Working together is not about constant doing.

It's about:

- Deep, honest reflection
- Being guided back to awareness
- Seeing patterns in real time
- Integrating this into your actual life

This is not surface work.

It's identity-level work.

Before our call, take a few minutes to reflect:

- What is currently repeating in your life?
- Where do you feel stuck or reactive?
- What have you been trying to fix?

You don't need perfect answers.

Just awareness.

THIS SPACE IS FOR YOU IF...

- You're willing to look honestly at yourself
- You're open to seeing beyond your current perspective
- You're ready for something deeper than surface-level change

If it feels aligned, we'll explore working together.

If not, you'll still leave with clarity.

Either way, this is for you.
