- The audience registers to get access to the list of gifts.
- Once registered, they are taken to a page with all contributor giveaway offers.
- Each gift will include a picture of the contributor and the gift with a description and value.
- Then, the registered guests can choose which offers they're interested in.
- If they click on the button for YOUR offer, they're taken to YOUR opt-in page on YOUR site, where they complete the opt-in process of joining your mailing list in exchange for your gift.
- Sounds pretty amazing right? IT IS!
