

Terms and Conditions of Sale – Antoinette Mary

Please read the following terms carefully before purchasing any digital product or service from Antoinette Mary.

Article 1: Scope of application

These General Conditions of Sale apply to all transactions concluded through the official website of Antoinette Mary, a business registered and operating in Ireland.

A “client” is defined as any natural or legal person who places an order and completes a payment via our secure online payment platform. By making a purchase, the client agrees to these General Conditions of Sale in full.

These terms apply to all products and services offered by Antoinette Mary, including but not limited to digital programs, coaching sessions, meditations, workshops, retreats, audio content, downloadable materials, and any other deliverables made available through our online platforms.

Certain wellness practices may require medical clearance. Please refer to Article 8 for details.

Article 1a: Age limit

Antoinette Mary’s offerings are intended for clients aged 16 and over for the purchase of digital products, and 18 and over for participation in private services such as coaching, mentoring, workshops, retreats, or live group programs.

We are committed to maintaining a mature and responsible community. While we do not knowingly market to minors, it is the responsibility of each user to ensure they meet the minimum age requirement prior to making a purchase or signing up for any of our services.

Any newsletter subscriber found to be under 16 will be promptly removed from our mailing list upon discovery. Likewise, any customer who completes a purchase without meeting the applicable age requirement will be refunded, and access to the related product or service will be revoked.

By placing an order, the client confirms that they meet the age criteria outlined above.

Article 2: Order

By placing an order through any website, platform, or payment gateway associated with Antoinette Mary, the client acknowledges and fully accepts, without reservation, these General Conditions of Sale.

This acceptance applies to all purchases, whether for digital content, services, coaching, live programs, or any other offering made available by Antoinette Mary. Completion of payment constitutes a binding agreement between the client and the business.

It is the client’s responsibility to review these conditions prior to purchase. No order may be disputed on the grounds of lack of awareness of these terms.

Article 3: Price

All prices are listed in United States Dollars (USD) and are inclusive of applicable taxes, including Irish VAT at the current rate of 23%, where required.

Prices do not include any additional transaction fees or international currency conversion charges that may be applied by your payment provider. For physical goods (if applicable), shipping and handling charges may be added at checkout.

Antoinette Mary reserves the right to modify pricing at any time. However, the price applicable to a specific order shall be the price stated at the time the order is confirmed and paid.

It is the responsibility of the client to ensure that they understand the pricing currency and any associated fees charged by their financial institution.

Article 4: Payment

Payment is due in full at the time of placing the order, including for any pre-order or scheduled access products.

Accepted payment methods include credit card (via Stripe) and PayPal. Credit or debit cards issued by banks outside of Ireland must be internationally enabled (e.g., Visa or Mastercard). Please note that American Express is not accepted at this time.

All card transactions are processed securely through Stripe, a certified third-party payment processor. The information transmitted during payment is encrypted using industry-standard protocols and cannot be read during transmission over the network.

Antoinette Mary is not responsible for any errors, delays, or security issues related to the Stripe or PayPal platforms. By completing your payment, you agree to be bound by the terms and conditions of the selected payment provider.

Article 5: Delivery

The vast majority of offerings provided by Antoinette Mary are delivered digitally via secure online platforms, private membership portals, or direct email links. Upon successful purchase, clients will receive immediate or scheduled access to the relevant digital content, materials, or programs as described at the point of sale.

It is the client's responsibility to ensure that the email address provided at checkout is accurate and accessible. Please check your inbox, as well as your spam or promotions folders, shortly after purchase for access details.

For any physical products or mailed bonuses (if applicable), delivery will be made to the postal address provided at checkout. Clients are responsible for the accuracy of all address details, including postal codes. Antoinette Mary is not liable for delivery issues resulting from incomplete or incorrect address information.

While all reasonable efforts will be made to ensure smooth and timely delivery, Antoinette Mary cannot be held responsible for technical delays or access failures caused by third-party providers, server disruptions, or force majeure events. In the event of such issues, we will make every effort to restore your access or reissue your purchase in a timely manner.

Article 6: Protection of personal data

In accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679 ("GDPR") and the Data Protection Act 2018 (Ireland), you have the right to access, rectify, delete, or restrict the processing of your personal data at any time. You also have the right to data portability and to object to the processing of your personal information.

By accepting these general conditions of sale, you acknowledge that you have read and agreed to our privacy policy, and you consent to the collection and processing of your personal data for the purposes of fulfilling your order, providing digital access, offering support, and sending relevant communications.

When you provide your email address via our website, you agree to receive occasional emails containing information and/or promotional offers from Antoinette Mary. You can unsubscribe at any time by clicking the link provided at the bottom of each email.

All personal data collected is processed securely and is never shared with third parties without your consent, except where required by law. Our data storage and processing systems comply with the security requirements set out under Irish and EU data protection legislation.

If you wish to exercise your data rights or file a complaint, you may contact us directly at support@antoinettemary.com, or lodge a complaint with the Data Protection Commission (DPC) in Ireland at www.dataprotection.ie.

Article 8: Participation in wellness practices

Participation in any meditation, yoga, or breathwork practices offered through Antoinette Mary—including but not limited to emotional release breathwork which may involve periods of breath retention—is entirely voluntary and undertaken at your own risk.

These practices are not suitable for individuals with certain medical conditions, including but not limited to: epilepsy, cardiovascular issues, uncontrolled high blood pressure, recent surgery, or severe mental health disorders. If you have any known medical or psychological conditions, you must consult with your doctor or licensed healthcare provider before participating in any such practice.

By engaging with any Antoinette Mary offerings that include breathwork, meditation, yoga, or movement, you acknowledge that:

- You are physically and mentally capable of participating.

- You have received medical clearance where applicable.
- You understand that these practices are not a substitute for medical advice, diagnosis, or treatment.
- You release Antoinette Mary and all associated parties from any liability for any injury, condition, or issue that may arise as a result of participation.

Antoinette Mary is not a licensed medical professional, psychotherapist, or physician, and the content provided is not intended to diagnose, treat, or cure any condition.
