

Album text intro

Under the red island bakery was recorded during the winter of 2019 in the basement of my home and what used to be a bakery in West Berlin. It was recorded from start to finish in a day. No loops or re-recordings were used anywhere in the process and all instruments were played live in the room at the time of the recording.

Fabian