

NAVIGATING GROWTH:

Daily Reflections on Abundance and Calling

Your Foundation: “The Lord is my Shepherd. I shall not want. He makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside still waters; He restores my soul.” Psalm 23:1-2

- I do not lack. I always have more than enough.
- I rest in His love as I build wealth because He takes care of all my needs. There is no hurry. I’m safe.
- I can live in an oasis of peace as I build my business. He takes me to a quiet brook of bliss and I can go there whenever I feel anxious or worried.
- He revives me in His love whenever I need it.

I will not give up. “You need to persevere so that when you have done the will of God, you will receive what He has promised”. Hebrews 10:36

- I will be patient in all circumstances because I know God is growing me up into all things in Him.
- Perseverance grows my character and a mature character attracts and builds wealth.
- I will accomplish what God has called me to because I want to enjoy to the full what He has promised me.

I will believe the connection. “Beloved, I pray that you may prosper and be in health, even as your soul prospers”. 3John 2

- I understand there is a strong connection between my soul, my body, and my spirit and God desires I prosper in every way.
- I will allow God to teach me how to prosper in my soul.
- I will embrace the process of learning how to prosper in every way, leading to financial breakthroughs and success.

I am a creative being and I can create new things. Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here”. 2 Corinthians 5:17

- No matter how many financial mistakes I’ve made, I can have a fresh start every day.
- I am made new; all the old things and ways of being are gone now.
- Because of my uniqueness, I will build my business in my own unique way partnering with the Spirit who leads me.

I am the gate keeper of my mind. “You will keep him in perfect peace whose mind remains on You, because he trusts in You”. Isaiah 26:3

- At any time, I can choose what thoughts I allow into my mind. Because I am in charge of my mind, I can choose to keep my thoughts steadfast.
- I will be committed and focused on what God has called me to do regarding my finances.
- Science has proven neurological pathways are created in our minds, and I can create new neurological pathways by not allowing negative thoughts to rule in my mind.
- Perfect peace is promised to me as I keep my mind focused on God.

I’m leaving the mountain of financial lack behind. “The Lord our God said to us at Horeb, ‘you have stayed at the mountain long enough. Break camp, and advance.’ ” Deuteronomy 1:6-7a

- I'm leaving the habits behind that have hindered me from receiving the abundance God has promised me.
- I'm not going to allow the fear of leaving my comfort zone stop me from creating the income I want to create.
- I understand I am a steward of everything God has entrusted to me, and with joy, I will direct my resources in the way He desires.

I will commit to myself and to God. "Commit your way to the Lord; trust in Him also and He will do it". Psalm 37:5

- I will hold my expectations of timing loosely, and trust the process of building my income and business to God.
- I will stay committed to increasing my income but be ready to pivot as God leads me.
- I understand as I deepen my relationship with God, my trust in Him will grow.

My past does not define me or determine my future. "As far as the east is from the west, so far does he remove our transgressions from us". Psalm 103:12

- Since God doesn't remember my failures and mistakes, I'm not going to allow those things to determine how I move forward in my life.
- God forgives me for my past, so I'm going to forgive myself and "forget the things like lie behind" so I can move forward into everything God has for me, including prosperity in spirit, soul, and body.
