Frequently Asked Questions

Who is Greg Moyer?

Greg Moyer is a globally respected innovation strategist, inventor, and consultant. He has worked with multinational, multi-billion-dollar organizations including Microsoft, HP, Cisco, Siemens, and over 80 others. Greg spent 25 years in Silicon Valley applying this framework to:

- Greg has led innovation efforts across technology, design, and business
- Come up with 9 of his own personal inventions
- Develop 10 innovations for his industry
- Generate over $6 billion in new revenue for just 6 of his clients

Greg has spent decades researching innovation, creativity, and cognition including the successful thinking and doing habits of history's greatest innovators. His training represents the integration of research, experience, and faith.

This is not theory. It is proven, repeatable, and transferable. With every concept grounded in Scripture and conveyed with spiritual discernment.

Greg's work reveals why innovation declines, why AI accelerates the problem, and how Spirit-led leaders can rise above the noise. What makes this training different is not just Greg's expertise, it's his commitment to biblical alignment, humility, and Spirit-led application.

Who Co-Creating with GOD Training Is For

This program is specifically designed for:

- Christian CEOs, founders, and executives
- Entrepreneurs with a God-given vision
- Marketplace leaders seeking deeper spiritual alignment
- Innovators who want discernment...not just speed
- Builders who sense God calling them to more
- Faith-driven professionals tired of compartmentalized living

If you feel an inspirational dissatisfaction with business as usual, and are called to build, create, solve, or lead, this training was created for you.

Is Co-Creating with GOD biblically grounded?

Yes. The Co-Creating with GOD: Spirit-Led Innovation Training Program is firmly rooted in Scripture and the biblical understanding that humanity was created in the image of God, the ultimate Creator (Genesis 1:27). Throughout the training, you'll see how:

- God empowers creativity through His Spirit (Exodus 31:2–5).
- Wisdom and innovation come from the Lord (James 1:5).
- Revelation flows through relationship, obedience, and stewardship, not mysticism or manipulation.

This program does not replace Scripture. It teaches you how to apply biblical truth faithfully in the marketplace.

What does “Co-Creating with God” actually mean?

“Co-Creating with God” does not mean we create independently of Him. Or that we elevate ourselves to God's level. It means:

- We submit our minds, talents, and work to God.
- We partner with the Holy Spirit in discernment and decision-making.
- We steward ideas God reveals with humility and responsibility.

Just as Joseph, Daniel, Bezalel, and George Washington Carver received insight from God and acted on it faithfully, this program teaches a process for listening, discerning, and executing in alignment with God's will.

"For we are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works..." - Ephesians 2:10

Is Co-Creating with GOD only for business people?

No. While many participants are entrepreneurs and executives, this training is for any Christian leader or knowledge worker who desires to think clearly, creatively, and be Spirit-led. This includes:

- Business owners and founders
- Senior executives and managers
- Ministry and nonprofit leaders
- Consultants and creatives
- Educators, strategists, and problem-solvers

If God has entrusted you with decisions, influence, or ideas, this program applies to you.

Is this a business course or a spiritual formation experience?

It is both, by design. Most business programs ignore spiritual discernment. Most spiritual programs avoid execution and strategy. This training integrates:

- Biblical theology
- Neuroscience and cognitive science
- Proven innovation frameworks
- Practical marketplace application
- Spirit-led revelation and wisdom

The result is formation that produces fruit, not just inspiration.

Does this promote “New Age” or unbiblical practices?

No, explicitly not. This program:

- Does not teach visualization divorced from Scripture.
- Does not teach manifestation theology.
- Does not replace prayer with technique.
- Does not promote self-deification or mystical practices.

Any historical references (such as Renaissance thinkers or monastic practices) are used for understanding thinking discipline, not spirituality replacement. Everything is filtered through biblical discernment and submission to God.

How is this different from traditional creativity or innovation training?

Traditional creativity training:

- Relies on brainstorming and chance
- Ignores how the brain is actually designed
- Separates faith from thinking
- Produces ideas without execution

This program teaches:

- A repeatable thinking framework
- How God designed the brain to innovate
- Why most innovation fails
- How Spirit-led leaders generate ideas on demand
- How to bring ideas across the goal line

It is disciplined creativity, not chaotic inspiration.

Why are we giving Co-Creating with GOD away for free?

Co-Creating with GOD: Spirit-Led Innovation is a top-tier, executive-level training program designed for Christian business, leaders, founders, entrepreneurs and advisors who are called to innovate with God.

This program is drawn from three separate live events, spanning four days, and has been carefully structured into three core learning experiences totaling more than 17 hours of professionally filmed and edited video training:

- The BASIC Seminar
- The ADVANCED Workshop
- The DEEP DIVE Sessions

In addition, participants receive exclusive bonus content, all hosted on our state-of-the-art, on-demand learning platform, engineered specifically for maximum engagement, integration, and long-term retention. The training is accessible globally, allowing leaders anywhere in the world to participate on their schedule.

Because of its uniqueness, depth, proven results, and decades of refinement, this material is truly invaluable. However, executive-level business and innovation programs of this caliber typically sell for $5,000 to $10,000 or more.

Yet we are offering this program to you at no cost.

This is a Kingdom initiative.

We believe that access to Spirit-led wisdom, creativity, and innovation should never be limited by the ability to pay. Through God's provision, your enrollment fee has already been fully covered.

Our mission is to:

- Remove financial barriers to access
- Multiply impact through generosity
- Restore God-given creativity and inventiveness
- Activate Spirit-led innovation through revelatory insight
- Generate life-changing ideas for Kingdom purposes
- Equip Christian leaders to positively influence their spheres of impact
- Build a global network of like-minded, faith-driven business leaders

You are also encouraged to freely share this program with others God places on your heart, so that what He is releasing through this training can multiply far beyond any one individual.

This is not just a course. It's an invitation to steward what God has entrusted to you for His purposes, and for such a time as this.

What kind of time commitment is required?

The program is self-paced, allowing you to move through the content prayerfully and intentionally. You can:

- Watch sessions in short segments
- Revisit teachings as needed
- Apply lessons immediately in real life
- Progress at a pace that honors your season

This is designed for busy leaders, not classroom dependency.

Will this help me hear God more clearly?

Yes, because clarity comes from:

- Stillness
- Structure
- Discernment
- Obedience
- Renewed thinking

This training does not promise visions or mystical experiences. It teaches you how to create the conditions where discernment flourishes. Many participants report:

- Increased clarity
  - Peace in decision-making
  - Confirmation of direction
  - Greater confidence in stewarding ideas

What outcomes can I realistically expect?

Participants who apply this framework typically experience:

- Increased confidence in decision-making
- Greater clarity with strategic thinking

- Improved creative output
- Stronger execution effectiveness
- Faster innovation cycles
- Renewed joy in work
- Reduced feeling overwhelmed
- Alignment between faith and leadership
- Tangible progress on ideas God has placed in their hearts

This is not about chasing ideas, it's about stewarding them well. Results will vary but faithful stewardship always produces fruit.

How do I know if God is inviting me into this?

Ask yourself:

- Do I sense God calling me to think differently?
- Am I stewarding ideas or sitting on them?
- Do I feel a pull toward clarity, not hype?
- Am I ready to renew my mind for Kingdom impact?

"If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask God..." - James 1:5

If the answer is yes—this may be your next faithful step.

Leadership FAQs

"I'm extremely busy. I don't have time for another program."

That's precisely why this training exists. This is not a content-heavy, time-draining course. It is a thinking and doing framework designed to save time by improving how you think, decide, and execute.

Executives who apply Renaissance Thinking report:

- Faster decision-making

- Fewer false starts
- Greater clarity under pressure
- Less wasted effort
- More progress with the same or less energy

This is not about adding more to your plate. It's about removing friction from everything already on it.

“I’ve taken a lot of leadership and innovation training already.”

So had Greg Moyer. So had many of the leaders who found this framework transformational.

Most innovation training:

- Teaches tactics without transformation
- Produces ideas without execution
- Separates faith from thinking
- Ignores how the brain is actually designed

This training addresses the root cause, not surface symptoms. It reveals the underlying thinking architecture shared by:

- Biblical innovators
- Renaissance creators
- Modern breakthrough leaders

If previous training hasn't produced sustained clarity, speed, and fruit—this is different.

“I’m cautious about mixing faith and business frameworks.”

That caution is wise and biblical.

This program does not force faith into business. It restores faith to where it always belonged: leadership, stewardship, creativity, and discernment.

Scripture is clear:

- God gives wisdom for governance and strategy

- God fills people with skill, insight, and craftsmanship
- God speaks into practical decisions

This training does not blur lines, it aligns them.

“Is this just spiritualized creativity training?”

No. This is disciplined thinking informed by:

- Neuroscience
- Historical innovation patterns
- Marketplace validation
- Biblical theology

Spiritual insight without structure leads to confusion. Structure without the Spirit leads to dead works. This framework integrates both, which is why it works.

“Is this relevant in the age of AI?”

Especially in the age of AI. AI can replicate information.

AI cannot replace:

- Discernment
- Wisdom
- Original insight
- Moral responsibility
- Spirit-led creativity

This training equips you to lead above automation, not compete with it.

“What if this challenges how I currently think or lead?”

We sure hope so. Then it’s probably doing its job.

Renewal always precedes breakthrough. “Do not be conformed... but be transformed by the renewal of your mind.” - Romans 12:2

This training doesn't tear down leadership, it refines it.

“What's the risk?”

The financial risk is zero.

The real question is:

- What is the risk of continuing with diminished clarity?
- What is the cost of delayed obedience?
- What is the opportunity cost of un-stewarded ideas?

This is a no-risk, high-alignment invitation.

“How do I know if this is for me?”

You may be ready if:

- You sense God calling you to think differently
- You carry ideas but lack a process
- You want clarity more than noise
- You value discernment over trends
- You desire impact with integrity

If that resonates, this is likely your next step.

A Final Word to Leaders

This is not about learning more. It's about becoming aligned. It's not about striving harder. It's about partnering deeper. And it's not about innovation for its own sake. It's about faithful stewardship of what God entrusts to you.

A Personal Word from the Founders

Additional Questions You May Have... Answered from the Heart

---

Why did you create Co-Creating with GOD?

Greg:

Because I reached a point in my life where I realized something critical was missing. Not knowledge, not effort, not discipline, but alignment.

After decades in Silicon Valley, inventing, innovating, and helping companies generate billions in revenue, I could see clearly that the greatest breakthroughs never came from striving harder. They came when thinking, discernment, timing, and execution aligned in a way I couldn't manufacture.

When I began studying the greatest innovators throughout history, many of them deeply faithful believers, I discovered they were all using the same thinking framework. Over time, I realized this framework mirrors how God designed the brain to function creatively.

This program exists because I believe God never intended creativity to be random, rare, or reserved for a few. It is part of our design as image-bearers.

What does “Co-Creating with GOD” really mean to you?

Brett:

For me, it means obedience before outcome.

Long before I ever met Greg, God walked me through this same framework by revelation... step by step, as I followed His leading in my own work. At the time, I didn't know it was a “framework.” I just knew I was being led.

Co-creating with God means:

- Listening before acting
- Discernment before decision

- Faithfulness before scale

It's not about claiming ideas as your own. It's about stewarding what God entrusts to you with humility and courage.

Is this program biblical or is it mixing faith with secular thinking?

Greg:

That question matters deeply to me.

Everything in this program is filtered through Scripture and grounded in the understanding that God is the source of wisdom, insight, and creativity. We are not borrowing from New Age ideas or self-deification philosophies.

Yes, we reference history. Yes, we reference neuroscience. Yes, we reference proven innovation systems.

But all of it points back to this truth:

"In Him are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge." - Colossians 2:3

This training helps you renew your mind so you can discern God's will more clearly in real-world decisions, not replace Him with technique.

Why offer something this valuable for free?

Brett:

Both of us have invested heavily in advanced training over the years, sometimes at great personal cost. Those experiences changed the trajectory of our lives.

We also know that God does not put price tags on obedience.

We felt clearly led to remove financial barriers so that:

- Christian leaders around the world could access this
- Churches, ministries, and businesses could benefit freely

- The framework could spread organically through generosity

You are not just allowed to share this, you're encouraged to.

Who do you believe this program is really for?

Greg:

It's for leaders who feel a quiet tension inside.

People who sense:

- There's more they're meant to steward
- They don't want to chase trends or noise
- They're tired of shallow answers
- They want clarity, not hype

This program is for builders, whether in business, ministry, or influence, who want to operate from revelation, not reaction.

What kind of results should someone expect?

Brett:

We're careful with promises, but confident in fruit.

What we hope to see is:

- Clearer thinking
- Better decisions
- Faster execution
- Renewed confidence
- A return of joy in work
- Ideas that actually move forward

Not everyone's results look the same, but everyone who applies the framework experiences change.

What if someone feels unsure or cautious?

Greg:

That's wisdom...not resistance.

Scripture tells us to test everything and hold fast to what is good. We invite that.

You don't need blind faith to enroll, just a willingness to engage prayerfully, thoughtfully, and honestly. Let the fruit speak.

What do you hope happens as a result of this program?

Brett:

Our prayer is simple:

That Christian leaders would rise quietly, faithfully, courageously and begin solving real problems with God-given insight.

That innovation would return to the Church.

That creativity would no longer be outsourced to machines.

That businesses and ministries would become witnesses by how they operate.

That God would be glorified, not just in words, but in what gets built.

If someone is still unsure... what would you say to them?

Greg:

Ask God one question:

"Is this an invitation to steward what You've already placed in me?"

If the answer is yes, even quietly...take the step.

Step Into Co-Creation

You were not created to strive alone.

You were created to partner with God.

If you sense there is more...

- ⇒ More clarity.
- ⇒ More effectiveness.
- ⇒ More Kingdom fruit.

You are right.
