

Section B - Medical Treatment Plans - Please answer this series of questions for each proposed phase of treatment.

4a. What type of treatment is this (immunotherapy, chemotherapy, radiation, surgery, lifestyle modification, monitoring only, or a combination)?

4b. How does the treatment work?

4c. What results should I expect to see, and how soon?

4d. Please name any drugs to be used during this treatment:

4e. Please list the most common adverse effects:

4f. What are some strategies we can use to reduce the adverse effects (this may include adjuvant therapies, or techniques to enhance selectivity toward target cells):

4g. Please describe how this therapy is administered (route, frequency, outpatient, self-administered, etc.):

4h. How long should I expect to stay on this treatment?

4j. What's the approximate out-of-pocket expense (either total, monthly, or yearly, as applicable)?

4k. What other things should I be thinking about regarding this treatment?

Section C - Monitoring

5. How will my health be monitored during treatment?

6. What are the most common health risks of the monitoring tests, if any?

7. What's the usual turn-around time for test results?

8. How will test results be communicated to me (email, phone call, online)? And is there an online portal so I can view my records at home?

Section D - Additional Considerations

9. Is my case being used to supply clinical data for the development or refinement of a specific drug, technique, or an overall therapeutic approach? ( Y / N )

10. What's your big-picture perspective on my overall health & prognosis?

11. I am not asking for medical advice here, but rather, seeking practical guidance. If you were in my situation... How likely would you be to utilize my current therapeutic plan as a first choice, before exploring other options? (If anything less than 100% likely, please elaborate.)

12. I'm working with a private science consultant. Would you like to receive information about complementary & holistic strategies which may be of benefit in my situation?
