101 SOCIAL MEDIA HOOKS

A hook is a short phrase at the beginning of a reel or other short-form video (e.g. TikTok, YouTube Shorts) designed to make the viewer stop scrolling and stick around to watch your video.

A good hook should be visually engaging, emotionally appealing, or thought-provoking, often within the first few seconds of the video. Elements that make a hook effective include a compelling narrative, striking visuals, intriguing questions, unexpected humor, or a teaser of what's to come.

Catchy, curiosity-inspiring phrases that make the viewer want to find out more are best! The following suggestions and examples can be adapted to your own niche and content.

101 CALL TO ACTIONS (CTAs)

A “call to action” is a short phrase that invites or commands the viewer to take a specific action - for example, liking or engaging with the video, making a comment, signing up to an email list, etc.

CTAs can be very effective in getting viewers to move from passive watching into actively engaging with your content and even becoming paying customers or engaged email list recipients. Don't be afraid to tell your viewers exactly how you want them to engage with your content!

You can mix and match these CTAs with the hooks to create compelling and engaging TikTok/social media videos. Remember to always make the CTAs clear and actionable to encourage your viewers to take the desired action.
