Hello there!

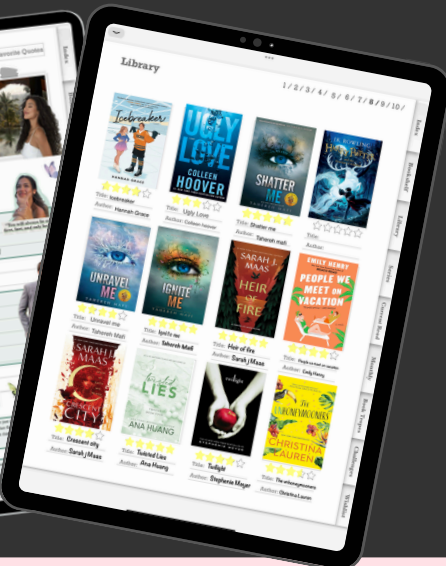

Welcome to your digital reading journal a space designed to capture your thoughts, track your books, and make your reading experience even more meaningful.

This journal helps you stay organized without the need for multiple notebooks, loose notes, or scattered bookmarks. Everything about your reading life, all in one place.

Whether you're setting reading goals, reflecting on your favourite books, or building your own little library of memories, this journal is here to support your journey.

I'm so happy you're here, enjoy every page and every story you discover 💕

How to Use Your Digital Journal

This guide is based on using the GoodNotes app on iPad, but similar steps apply to other apps like Notability.

Step 1: Import Your Journal

1. Download your file to your device
2. Open the GoodNotes app or any other PDF annotation app, Notability, Xodo, Penly App, One Note...
3. In your files, click on share, then open into Goodnotes

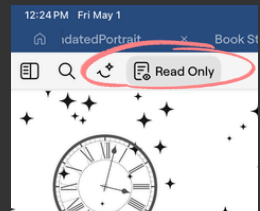

💡 Tip: If downloading from Safari or Dropbox, tap "Open in GoodNotes"

Step 2: Use Clickable Tabs (Hyperlinks)

To navigate your journal:

1. Tap the Read-Only Mode (top)
2. This removes the editing toolbar
3. You can now click tabs and links easily

Goodnotes Tips

This guide is based on using the GoodNotes app on iPad, but similar steps apply to other apps like Notability.

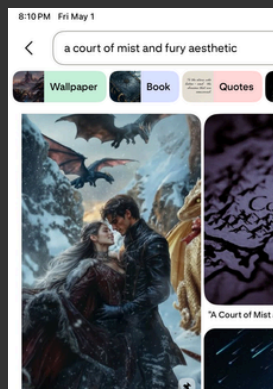

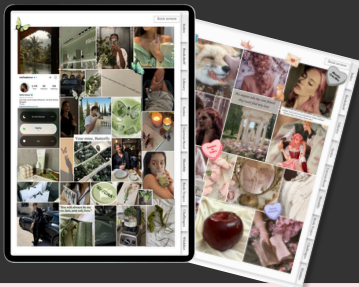

How do i add Book Images?

1. I get my images from Google, i search the Book Title Save the Image
2. Open the GoodNotes app, click on the image icon and insert the book cover.
3. After you click on the Read only icon and the hyperlinks will work.
4. then you can click on a book image and it will take you to the book review page

How do I find Book Aesthetic Images?

I find my book aesthetic images from Pinterest i search the book aesthetic, for example, a Court of Mist and Fury aesthetic, Fanart...
