First Edition

Las Vegas is famous for its glitz and glamour, but beyond the bright lights lie hidden bars and speakeasies that offer exclusive cocktails, secret entrances, and an unforgettable experience. If you love the thrill of discovery, this list is for you!

1. The Laundry Room

Where: Inside Commonwealth, 525 E Fremont St

How to Get In: Text the secret number (702-701-1466) to request a reservation. No walk-ins.

What Makes It Unique: This ultra-intimate speakeasy seats just 22 guests and is styled like a 1950s dry cleaner. Expect personalized, hand-crafted cocktails, strict no-photo rules, and an elevated vibe that rewards etiquette and secrecy.

2. Ghost Donkey

Where: Inside The Cosmopolitan's Block 16 Urban Food Hall

How to Get In: Look for a nondescript, unmarked door near the seating area.

What Makes It Unique: A mezcal lover's dream, this psychedelic Mexican speakeasy features glowing pink lights, cozy vibes, and a menu filled with rare agave spirits and truffle nachos. It's quirky, intimate, and undeniably fun.

3. 1923 Prohibition Bar

Where: Mandalay Bay – Shoppes at Mandalay Place

How to Get In: Enter through an unmarked wooden door near the minus5° Ice Bar signage.

What Makes It Unique: A classy throwback to the roaring twenties with live jazz, burlesque shows, and top-shelf whiskey. The ambiance is moody and immersive—think velvet booths and vintage glam.

4. Here Kitty Kitty Vice Den

Where: Inside Resorts World's Famous Foods Street Eats

How to Get In: Locate the Lucky Cat statue—push open the hidden door behind it.

What Makes It Unique: A seductive, neon-lit bar with strong Asian influences and a menu of sake, cocktails, and intriguing bites. The vibe is edgy, chic, and Instagram-worthy.

5. The Vault at Circa

How to Get In: Invitation-only. Must be a high-roller or receive a host referral.

What Makes It Unique: One of the most exclusive experiences in Vegas. Think polished leather, rare spirits, custom cocktails, and deep conversations. It's less a bar and more a private club.

Social: Not publicly promoted

6. The Lock Speakeasy

Where: Inside Horseshoe Las Vegas (formerly Bally's)

How to Get In: Hidden within the Cabinet of Curiosities bar—ask the bartender how to “unlock” it.

What Makes It Unique: The journey begins with riddles and storytelling. The cocktail menu is equally mysterious, featuring dramatic presentations and flavor surprises.

7. The Underground at The Mob Museum

Where: Basement level of The Mob Museum, Downtown Las Vegas

How to Get In: Use the side entrance or access through the museum after hours.

What Makes It Unique: An authentic 1920s speakeasy featuring Prohibition-era cocktails, moonshine made on-site, and mob history exhibits. Live music on weekends.

8. Ski Lodge

Where: Inside The Cosmopolitan, behind Superfrico

How to Get In: Walk through Superfrico restaurant and find the ski cabin door

What Makes It Unique: A cozy après-ski bar in the desert. Themed like a snowy alpine lodge, with faux fireplaces, ski movies playing on TVs, and cocktails that warm your soul.

Social: @superfrico

9. Secret Pizza + Cocktail Pairings

Where: 3rd Floor, The Cosmopolitan (next to Jaleo, behind an unmarked hallway)

How to Get In: Follow the vinyl-record-lined hallway to the end.

What Makes It Unique: This unmarked New York-style pizza joint is legendary, but many don't know they serve perfect cocktail pairings to go with your slice—ask for the off-menu options.

Social: No official account. Search #secretpizzavegas on Instagram.

10. The Dorsey's Library Room

Where: Venetian Resort, within The Dorsey cocktail lounge

How to Get In: Ask staff to seat you in "The Library" - a tucked-away back room with limited access.

What Makes It Unique: It's quiet, intimate, and perfect for serious cocktail lovers. The mixologists here are top-tier, and the space is ideal for a refined escape from the casino floor.
