Client Review

"I have owned my business since 2017 and it has been a slow process growing, as most people have experienced on the online coaching platform. I've hired coaches before but often times I felt like they just left me hanging high and dry even though I invested all my savings into getting support to grow my biz. I can confidently say coach Rachel is the best coach I've had and all the complete opposite of my experience previously! Ever biz question I have I get support in, when I'm feeling lost or overwhelmed Rachel helps me get grounded and remember why I'm doing this all, and additionally she is just so kind I feel like no matter what happens she's here to support me! In less than 8 weeks of working together my business is more professional than it ever has been, I'm learning more than I ever have, and I already got a brand new client after barely making any new changes! This Voxer coaching experience is PERFECT for me and I can't wait for the growth to come!"
